Television after TV Jan Olsson, Lynn Spigel, 2004-11-30 A critical reassessment of television and television studies in the age of new media

Reading Television John Fiske, John Hartley, 2004-05-05 Reading Television was the first book to push the boundaries of television studies beyond the insights offered by cultural studies and textual analysis creating a vibrant new field of study Using the tools and techniques in this book it is possible for everyone with a television set to analyze both the programmes and the culture which produces them In this edition Hartley reflects on recent developments in television studies and includes suggestions for further reading His new foreword underlines the continuing relevance of this foundational text in the study of contemporary culture

Uncertain Masculinities Mike O'Donnell, Sue Sharpe, 2002-11-01 In this era of rapid and unsettling change boys now more than ever face difficulties in establishing their self image and status In this original and challenging study Mike O'Donnell and Sue Sharpe explore how teenage boys from white African Caribbean and Asian backgrounds negotiate contemporary uncertainties to construct their gender identities Drawing theoretical insights about how class race and ethnicity critically affect the formulation of masculinities throughout the authors examine the discrepancies between boys and girls attitudes and expectations the split between boys formal acceptance of politically correct ideas and their informal behaviour amongst the peer group boys leisure pursuits including involvement in illegal activities and their selective identification with global youth culture Uncertain Masculinities is a fascinating account of the complexity of contemporary boys identities and will be of use to students of the sociology of youth and of gender studies

The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities Mary Romero, Eric Margolis, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities is a first rate collection of social science scholarship on inequalities emphasizing race ethnicity class gender sexuality age and nationality Highlights themes that represent the scope and range of theoretical orientations contemporary emphases and emerging topics in the field of social inequalities Gives special attention to debates in the field developing trends and directions and interdisciplinary influences in the study of social inequalities Includes an editorial introduction and suggestions for further reading

Audience Transformations Nico Carpentier, Kim Christian Schrøder, Lawrie Hallett, 2013-07-31 The concept of the audience is changing In the twenty first century there are novel configurations of user practices and technological capabilities that are altering the way we understand and trust media organizations and representations how we participate in society and how we construct our social relations This book embeds these transformations in a societal cultural technological ideological economic and historical context avoiding a naive privileging of technology as the main societal driving force but also avoiding the media centric reduction of society to the audiences that are situated within Audience Transformations provides a platform for a nuanced and careful analysis of the main changes in European communicational practices and their social cultural and technological affordances

The Media and Globalization Terhi Rantanen, 2005 In this provocative book Terhi Rantanen challenges conventional ways of thinking about globalization and shows how it cannot be understood without studying the role of the media Rantanen begins with an accessible overview of globalization and the pivotal role of the media

Changes in Contemporary Ireland Catherine Rees, 2014-09-26 This volume explores the cultural literary theatrical and political changes in Irish society from 1980 The so called Celtic Tiger brought about cultural and economic rejuvenation in Ireland but this new found confidence and prosperity was destabilised by other events such as the scandals in the Catholic Church bringing into question the role of traditional institutions in contemporary Irish life The ending of the Troubles and signing of the Good Friday Agreement similarly heralded a new era in terms of positive political change but recent paramilitary activity threatens to undermine the progress made in the 1990s as waves of new violence hit the North Equally recent economic recession has halted the radical growth seen in the Republic over recent decades This book therefore problematises the concept of change and progress by juxtaposing these events and asking what real changes can be traced in modern Ireland The contributors frequently reflect on the changes and upheavals this period of dramatic economic political and cultural change has prompted The volume includes contributions from the fields of politics cultural studies sport history geography media and film studies and theatre and literature As such it is a decidedly interdisciplinary study exploring wide ranging topics and issues relevant to contemporary Irish Studies

The Television Genre Book Glen Creeber, 2023-11-30 In this new edition of The Television Genre Book leading international scholars have come together to offer an accessible and comprehensive update to the debates issues and concerns of the field As television continues to evolve rapidly this new edition reflects the ways in which TV has transformed in recent years particularly with the emergence of online streaming services such as Netflix Disney HBO Max and Amazon Prime It also includes a new chapter on sports TV and expanded coverage of horror political thrillers Nordic noir historical documentary and docu drama With analyses of popular shows like Stranger Things Killing Eve The Crown Chernobyl Black Mirror Fleabag Breaking Bad and RuPaul's Drag Race this book offers a comprehensive understanding of television genre for scholars and students alike
