range of subject areas Singing an Indian Song Dorothy R. Parker, 1994-11-01 One of the foremost Native American intellectuals of his generation 1904 77 D Arcy McNickle is best known today for the American Indian history center that carries his name at the Newberry Library in Chicago and for his novels The Surrounded Runner in the Sun and Wind from an Enemy Sky A historian and novelist he was also an anthropologist Bureau of Indian Affairs official during the heady days of the Indian New Deal teacher and founding member of the National Congress of American Indians The child of a M tis mother and white father he was an enrolled member of the Flathead Tribe of Montana But first and largely by choice he was a Native American who sought to restore pride and self determination to all Native American people Based on a wide range of previously untapped sources this first full length biography traces the course of McNickle s life from the reservation of his childhood through a career of major import to American Indian political and cultural affairs In so doing it reveals a man who affirmed his own heritage while giving a collective Indian voice to many who had previously seen themselves only in a tribal context Life-Writing Donald J. Winslow, 1995-01-01 This text presents an introduction and a reference source of terms in the writing of biographies autobiographies and related literature Telling the Untold Story Steve Weinberg, 1992 Author of his own controversial unauthorized biography of Armand Hammer Steve Weinberg here shows how a new generation of biographers is revealing the lives of powerful individuals in dramatic and important new ways Trained as investigative journalists today s writers have entered a domain once dominated by university scholars Unlike their more academic predecessors who often wrote nonjudgmental books on the public lives of long dead individuals these new biographers are willing to tackle such powerful living subjects as Nancy Reagan Henry Kissinger Hugh Hefner Pete Rose and Fidel Castro Few of these books are adoring Without cooperation from their subjects and sometimes under threat of lawsuit these writers are probing into private lives and enabling readers to make up their own minds about public figures Tracing the evolution of the craft of biography up to the present day Weinberg draws on interviews with some of today s best biographers as well as his own experience with the Hammer biography to highlight the careers of some of the writers whose work exploded the boundaries of traditional biography When Robert Caro became the first journalist to win a Pulitzer Prize for Biography for his book on Robert Moses it marked the dawn of a new approach to the craft Weinberg also explores the techniques of Philadelphia Inquirer journalists Donald Barlett and James Steele whose jointly authored biographies of Howard Hughes and Nelson Rockefeller mark another sign of how far the genre of biography has come The book is enriched by samples of investigative biography at its best including a scathingly honest profile of the reigning queen of unauthorized biography Kitty Kelley and Calvin Trillin s fascinating New Yorker profile of the Miami Herald s inimitable police reporter Edna Buchanan The living of a life is more difficult than the chronicling of it but the chronicling is certainly no simple task writes Weinberg Telling somebody else s life fully fairly and compellingly is probably an impossible task But it is important to keep pushing the limits of the possible For writers reviewers publishers and general readers Telling the Untold Story is a fascinating look at how a new kind of biographer has forever changed our expectations of the genre and continues to push biography to exciting new limits
