The Field Of Stones A Study Of The Art Of Shen Chou 1427 1509:

The Field of Stones Richard Edwards, 1962 The Field of Stones. A Study of the Art of Shen Chou, 1427-1509. [With Reproductions and a Bibliography]. Richard Edwards (Writer on Art.), 1962 The Field of Stones, a Study of the Art of Shen Chou (1427-1509). with 51 Plates Richard Edwards, Zhou Shen, 1962 Field of Stones, 1962 The Field of Stones Richard Edwards, 1953 Five Hundred Years of Chinese Poetry, 1150-1650 Kojiro Yoshikawa, John Timothy Wixted, 2014-07-14

Five Hundred Years of Chinese Poetry offers the only historical survey in any language of this important span of Chinese poetry Written by the foremost Japanese sinologist of this century and translated here in a lucid analogue to his famous prose style the work provides a brief but comprehensive review of the period's literary history a sketch of its political and social history in relation to literature and a rendering of more than one hundred and fifty poems Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Painting of T'ang Yin Anne De Coursey Clapp, 1991-11

This richly illustrated volume documents the art and fully examines the career of the sixteenth century Chinese master T'ang Yin One of the four great painters of the middle Ming period the ambitious T'ang Yin rose above the merchant class into which he was born to become a member of the elite scholarly circle in the city of Suchou Deprived by accident of his academic degrees and so forced to paint for a living T'ang Yin became a social anomaly whose style of life cut across the conventions of his time His experiences throw into sharp relief the realities faced by a Chinese painter who was both elite Confucian scholar and professional painter Anne De Coursey Clapp's work also explores larger issues of Ming painting raised by the artist's turbulent career She describes the social and intellectual values exalted in Ming Suchou its system of patronage the contrast between the professional and amateur artist and the formative influence of twelfth century Sung dynasty styles on Suchou painters Clapp shows how T'ang Yin's artistic inventions were made in the course of leading the revival of Sung dynasty styles in Suchou tracing T'ang Yin's early studies of ancient and contemporary masters she describes how he reworked an antique style converting it into a vehicle of expression that reached fruition in a long series of fresh and powerful paintings of landscapes and birds and flowers In the process she revises the distorted version of middle Ming painting written by later Chinese art theorists to justify their own social and artistic values noting especially the role of art patrons and their effect on artistic production Clapp analyzes the increasing currency of painting as a means of social exchange in ancient China In particular she identifies commemorative painting as a major genre of the later dynasties and explores the role it played in the oeuvres of professional masters with its humanistic implications for the Chinese view of the ideal scholarly man Her broad view of T ang Yin s career shows him divided between the professional and amateur camps of his time in landscape and figural subjects he was aligned with the professionals in flower subjects with the amateurs Clapp argues that the uneven distribution of styles and genres between this master who was subject to the market and those who were independent of it suggests that T ang deliberately tried to expand the range of his paintings in order to appeal to buyers in the lower educational and social strata Illustrated by some of T ang Yin s most celebrated paintings and by some which are published for the first time her work is of tremendous importance to art literary and cultural historians of Ming China In this important work Anne de Coursey Clapp has drawn a clear picture of T ang Yin s life patronage relationships and contribution to the history of Chinese painting In the person of T ang Yin she has chosen an ideal focus around which to examine some of the misleading stereotypes which have distorted our understanding of Chinese painting since the seventeenth century Marked by analytical clarity and scrupulous scholarship her work is a welcome addition to the few works in English on individual Chinese artists Louise Yuhas Occidental College Glossator: Practice and Theory of the Commentary Carsten Madsen,Louis Bury,Barbara Clayton,2010-09-27 Volume 3 of the journal Glossator Practice and Theory of the Commentary <http://glossator.org> Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,1997 Expanded to twice as many entries as the 1985 edition and updated with new publications new editions of previous entries titles missed the first time around more of the artists own writings and monographs that deal with significant aspects or portions of an artist s work though not all of it The listing is alphabetical by artist and the index by author The works cited include analytical and critical biographical and enumerative their formats range from books and catalogues raisonnées to exhibition and auction sale catalogues A selection of biographical dictionaries containing information on artists is arranged by country Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
