Boxoffice The Kubrick Facade Jason Sperb, 2006 Many of Stanley Kubrick's films are often interpreted as cold and ambiguous Whether viewing Barry Lyndon 2001 The Shining or Eyes Wide Shut there is a sense in which these films resist their own audiences creating a distance from them Though many note the coldness of Kubrick's films a smaller number attempt to explore exactly how his body of work elicits this particular reaction Fewer still attempt to articulate what it might mean to feel Stanley Kubrick's films In The Kubrick Facade Jason Sperb examines the narrative ambiguity of the director's films from the voice over narration in early works including the once forgotten Fear and Desire to the blank faces of characters in his later ones In doing so Sperb shows how both devices struggle in vain to make sense of the chaos and sterility of the cinematic surface All thirteen of Stanley Kubrick's feature length films are discussed in chronological order from the little seen and long neglected Fear and Desire to the posthumous release of Eyes Wide Shut Sperb also discusses Kubrick's importance to Steven Spielberg's AI While exploring all of Kubrick's films the author concentrates in particular on The Killing Dr Strangelove 2001 The Shining Full Metal Jacket and Eyes Wide Shut This is also the first book length study that focuses considerable attention on Fear and Desire and its relevance to Kubrick's larger body of work In this respect The Kubrick Facade is one of the first truly comprehensive books on narrative in the maverick director's films It is also the first book to integrate a discussion of AI and the first to fully explore the importance of the consistent visual emphasis on blank silent faces in his post Lolita films
