Kenneth Kalu, Toyin Falola

The First Dance Of Freedom:

The First Dance of Freedom Martin Meredith,1984 The First Dance of Freedom Martin Meredith,1984 United Nations Peacekeeping in the Post-Cold War Era John Terence O'Neill,Nicholas Rees,2005 In seeking to examine whether peacekeeping fundamentally changed between the Cold War and post Cold War periods the author concludes that most peacekeeping operations were flawed due to the failure of UN members to agree upon various matters such as achievable objectives provision of necessary resources and unrealistic expectations The Mind of Black Africa Dickson Mungazi,1996-02-28 The violent colonization of Africa by European nations toward the end of the 19th century a colonization justified by theories about the African Mind promulgated in the Age of Reason had a profound impact upon the mind of Black Africa After World War II the mind of Black Africa rebelled this rebellion led to a struggle for the self After Africans achieved political independence the new African leaders betrayed their own people Africans now have the responsibility of restoring and reaffirming their true inheritance the mind of Black Africa The Function of Newspapers in Society Shannon E. Martin,David A. Copeland,2003-06-30 The demise of the newspaper has long been predicted Yet newspapers continue to survive globally despite competition from radio television and now the Internet because they serve core social functions in successful cultures Initial chapters of this book provide an overview of the development of modern newspapers Subsequent chapters examine particular societies and geographic regions to see what common traits exist among the uses and forms of newspapers and those artifacts that carry the name newspaper but do not meet the commonly accepted definition The conclusion suggests that newspapers are of such core value to a successful society that a timely and easily accessible news product will succeed despite or perhaps because of changes in reading habits and technology Freedom and Anarchy Eric S. Packham,1996 As the uncertain peace following the end of the Cold War dawns upon the world the role of the United Nations in becoming a major factor in solving conflict and bringing stability is moving to the forefront of world attention This book in great detail describes the intervention of the United Nations in the Congo now Zaire At the time this intervention was the largest in the history of the United Nations As the threats to international peace seem to mushroom this superb book details the players the actions the emotions and the accomplishments of this crucially significant historical achievement

Reflections on Leadership and Institutions in Africa Kenneth Kalu,Toyin Falola,2020-05-22 This book contains different reflections on leadership and institutions in Africa Drawing from different ideological and methodological orientations the book highlights how leadership and institutions have shaped and continue to shape the trajectory of Africa s political and economic development The book explores different epochs in Africa s history from the era of colonialism to the period of nationalist movements and up to post colonial Africa Essays in the volume engage with major actors and important institutions that defined each era By presenting various reflections and representations of leadership and institutions in Africa this book attempts to make the connection between leadership and institutions on the one hand and between these variables and Africa's development on the other. Similar to most studies on Africa's political economy, the book considers the role of external forces, whether operationalized through direct interventions as was the case during the colonial era or through subtle imposition of policies as has been the new model in post-colonial times. Drawing from these lenses, issues around Africa's dependency on external interventions, neo-colonialism, neoliberalism, and disregard for Africa's culture are explored and contextualized within the framework of leadership and institutions.

The Fate of Africa Martin

Meredith, 2011-09-06. The definitive story of African nations after they emerged from colonialism, from Mugabe's doomed kleptocracy to Mandela's inspiring defeat of apartheid. The Fate of Africa has been hailed by reviewers as 'A masterpiece', 'The nonfiction book of the year'. The New York Post, a magnificent achievement. Weekly Standard, a joy. Wall Street Journal, and one of the decade's most important works on Africa. Publishers Weekly, starred review. Spanning the full breadth of the continent, from the bloody revolt in Algiers against the French to Zimbabwe's civil war, Martin Meredith's classic history focuses on the key personalities, events, and themes of the independence era and explains the myriad problems that Africa has faced in the past half century. It covers recent events like the ongoing conflict in Sudan, the controversy over Western aid, the exploitation of Africa's resources, and the growing importance and influence of China.

Educational Reform and the Transformation of Southern Africa Dickson Mungazi, L. K. Walker, 1997-06-18. The political, social, and economic problems of southern Africa cannot be resolved until nations of this critical region effect educational reform. But this process requires more than change in the educational system; it involves the thrust for social transformation in national institutions. This unique study addresses key issues relative to both educational reform and social change in southern Africa. Topics discussed include the need for educational reform, approaches to educational reform, and the results of such reform on the individual and society. A bibliography and an index complete the text.
