The First Prophet The Methuselah Chronicles Ser Vol :

Enoch from Antiquity to the Middle Ages, Volume I John C. Reeves, Annette Yoshiko Reed, 2018-02-22 Across the ancient and medieval literature of Judaism Christianity and Islam one finds references to the antediluvian sage Enoch Both the Book of the Watchers and the Astronomical Book were long known from their Ethiopic versions which are preserved as part of Mashafa Henok Nabiy Book of Enoch the Prophet an Enochic compendium known in the West as 1 Enoch Since the discovery of Aramaic fragments among the Dead Sea Scrolls these books have attracted renewed attention as important sources for ancient Judaism Among the results has been the recognition of the surprisingly long and varied tradition surrounding Enoch Within 1 Enoch alone for instance we find evidence for intensive literary creativity This volume provides a comprehensive set of core references for easy and accessible consultation It shows that the rich afterlives of Enochic texts and traditions can be studied more thoroughly by scholars of Second Temple Judaism and early Christianity as well as by scholars of late antique and medieval religions Specialists in the Second Temple period the era in which Enochic literature first appears will be able to trace or discount the survival of Enochic motifs and mythemes within Jewish literary circles from late antiquity into the Middle Ages thereby shedding light on the trajectories of Jewish apocalypticism and its possible intersections with Jewish mysticism Students of Near Eastern esotericism and Hellenistic philosophies will have further data for exploring the origins of gnosticism and its possible impact upon sectarian currents in Judaism Christianity and Islam Those interested in the intellectual symbiosis among Jews Christians and Muslims in the Middle Ages and especially in the transmission of the ancient sciences associated with Hermeticism e g astrology theurgy divinatory techniques alchemy angelology demonology will be able to view a chain of tradition reconstructed in its entirety for the first time in textual form In the process we hope to provide historians of religion with a new tool for assessing the intertextual relationships between different religious corpora and for understanding the intertwined histories of the major religious communities of the ancient and medieval Near East

Bible and Qur'ān John C. Reeves, 2004 Nine essays by scholars who research the intersections of Jewish Christian and Islamic literary traditions explore various aspects of the textual and behavioral connections among these three major Near Eastern religious communities Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org
