The Fifth Day Poems:

Man'yōshū (Book 19) ,2019-03-27 Book nineteen of the Man'yōshū Anthology of Myriad Leaves continues Alexander Vovin's new English translation of this 20 volume work originally compiled between c 759 and 785 AD. It is the earliest Japanese poetic anthology in existence and thus the most important compendium of Japanese culture of the Asuka and Nara periods. Book nineteen is the eighth volume of the Man'yōshū to be published to date following books fifteen 2009, five 2011, fourteen 2012, twenty 2013, seventeen 2016, eighteen 2016 and one 2017. Each volume of the Vovin translation contains the original text, kana transliteration, romanization, glossing, and commentary. A Concordance to the Poetry of Thomas Traherne George R. Guffey, 2024-03-29 Concordance to the Poetry of Thomas Traherne offers an essential systematic tool for scholars of seventeenth century literature and poetry, particularly those exploring Traherne's unique spiritual and philosophical verse. Drawing from H. M. Margoliouth's definitive 1958 edition, this concordance meticulously catalogs each word and line from Traherne's complete poetic works, providing a valuable resource for textual analysis, interpretation, and comparative study. By indexing Traherne's poetry according to individual manuscripts, published books, and marginalia, it brings clarity to the complexities of his textual variations and orthographic idiosyncrasies. The concordance includes only the authoritative texts from the Dobell Folio, eschewing Philip Traherne's later revisions, and focuses on Traherne's intended compositions. Concordance entries facilitate cross-referencing within Traherne's poetic canon, capturing his language's nuances and revealing thematic connections, such as his profound engagement with concepts of innocence, divinity, and the natural world. Scholars will find the inclusion of rare words, specialized spellings, and titles annotated for source consistency a critical aid in interpreting Traherne's linguistic style and theological insights. This title was originally published in 1974. Concordance to the Poetry of Thomas Traherne offers an essential systematic tool for scholars of seventeenth century literature and poetry, particularly those exploring Traherne's unique spiritual and philosophical verse. Drawing from H. M. Margoliouth's Japanese Death Poems ,1998-04-15 A wonderful introduction to the Japanese tradition of jisei, this volume is crammed with exquisite spontaneous verse and pithy, often hilarious descriptions of the eccentric and committed monks who wrote the poems. Tricycle The Buddhist Review. Although the consciousness of death is in most cultures very much a part of life, this is perhaps nowhere more true than in Japan, where the approach of death has given rise to a centuries-old tradition of writing jisei, or the death poem. Such a poem is often written in the very last moments of the poet's life. Hundreds of Japanese death poems, many with a commentary describing the circumstances of the poet's death, have been translated into English; here, for the first time, the vast majority of them. Yoel Hoffmann explores the attitudes and customs surrounding death in historical and present-day Japan and gives examples of how these have been reflected in the nation's literature in general. The development of writing jisei is then examined from the longing poems of the early nobility and the more masculine verses of the samurai to the satirical death poems of later centuries. Zen Buddhist ideas about death are also described in a preface.
