

The background is a textured, golden-yellow surface. Overlaid on this are several abstract shapes. Two large, wavy, horizontal bands with a dark brown border and a pattern of small white and dark brown dots are positioned diagonally. To the right, there are two concentric circles with a dark brown border and a pattern of small white and dark brown dots. Below these, there are two more concentric circles with a dark brown border and a pattern of small white and dark brown dots. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional Aboriginal art, specifically the use of ochre and white pigments on a textured surface.

Songlines And Dreamings Contemporary Australian Aboriginal Art:

Songlines and Dreamings Patrick Corbally Stourton, 1996 The art of the Australian Aborigines is widely recognised as being the oldest art form in the world preceding that of the Americas and Europe by many centuries For thousands of years however the only art forms practised by the Aborigines were rock painting and carving bark painting sand painting and body painting using natural ochres wild desert cotton charcoal and birds down often carried out as part of ceremonial activities It was not until 1971 that the Aborigines of the Papunya Tula settlement in the deserts of the Northern Territory were introduced to methods of painting on canvas and board using modern materials This book commemorates the twenty fifth anniversary of the Papunya Tula painting movement the birthplace of contemporary Aboriginal painting The work of eighty Papunya Tula artists including some of the best known Aboriginal painters Clifford Possum Tjapaltjarri Michael Nelson Tjakamarra and Tim Leura Tjapaltjarri is illustrated in this book in two hundred full colour reproductions which demonstrates the vibrancy and sophistication of the art Patrick Corbally Stourton's introductory text examines the events which led to the birth of this extraordinary painting movement and illuminates the mythology of Dreamings which lies behind every Aboriginal painting

The Spirit of Secular Art Robert Nelson, 2007 THE SPIRIT OF SECULAR ART explains the spiritual prestige of art Various theorists have discussed how art has an aura or indefinable magic This book explains how when and why it gained its spiritual properties The idea that all art is somehow spiritual even though not religious is often assumed this book while narrating the historical trajectory of art in the most accessible language reveals how the mysteries of religious practice are abstracted and saved through all stages of secularisation in European culture THE SPIRIT OF SECULAR ART presents a coherent theory defining the sacred basis of Western aesthetics It evocatively describes the afterlife of the holy from Ancient Greece to the present and outlines how the mysterious institution of art can be explained in material terms Unlike other books in the genre THE SPIRIT OF SECULAR ART radically deconstructs traditional art history in terms of prestige and the value of the non material The book functions as an alternative critical history of art integrated with the histories of literature and belief a philosophical essay on the fundamental values of art and religion and a critique of the spiritual conceits of contemporary aesthetics and art appreciation

The Dead Do Not Die Sven Lindqvist, 2014-06-03 Sven Lindqvist is one of our most original writers on race colonialism and genocide and his signature approach uniting travelogues with powerful acts of historical excavation renders his books devastating and unforgettable Now for the first time Lindqvist's most beloved works are available in one beautiful and affordable volume with a new introduction by Adam Hochschild The Dead Do Not Die includes the full unabridged text of Exterminate All the Brutes called a book of stunning range and near genius by David Levering Lewis In this work Lindqvist uses Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness as a point of departure for a haunting tour through the colonial past retracing the steps of Europeans in Africa from the late eighteenth century onward and thus exposing the roots of genocide via his own journey through the Saharan desert The full text of Terra Nullius is also included for which Lindqvist traveled 7 000 miles through Australia in search of the lands the British had claimed as their own because it was inhabited by lower races the native Aborigines nearly nine tenths of whom were annihilated by whites The shocking story of how no man s land became the province of the white man was called the most original work on Australia and its treatment of Aborigines I have ever read marvelous by Phillip Knightley author of Australia The Making of Indigenous Australian Contemporary Art Marie Geissler,2021-01-06 This publication brings together existing research as well as new data to show how Arnhem Land bark painting was critical in the making of Indigenous Australian contemporary art and the self determination agendas of Indigenous Australians It identifies how when and what the shifts in the reception of the art were especially as they occurred within institutional exhibition displays Despite key studies already being published on the reception of Aboriginal art in this area the overall process is not well known or always considered while the focus has tended to be placed on Western Desert acrylic paintings This text however represents a refocus and addresses this more fully by integrating Arnhem Land bark painting into the contemporary history of Aboriginal art The trajectory moves from its understanding as a form of ethnographic art to seeing it as conceptual art and appreciating it for its cultural agency and contemporaneity Phenomenology/Ontopoiesis Retrieving Geo-cosmic Horizons of Antiquity Anna-Teresa

The Transnational in Literary Studies Kai Wiegandt, 2020-07-06 This volume clarifies the meanings and applications of the concept of the transnational and identifies areas in which the concept can be particularly useful The division of the volume into three parts reflects areas which seem particularly amenable to analysis through a transnational lens The chapters in Part 1 present case studies in which the concept replaces or complements traditionally dominant concepts in literary studies These chapters demonstrate for example why some dramatic texts and performances can better be described as transnational than as postcolonial and how the transnational underlies and complements concepts such as world literature Part 2 assesses the advantages and limitations of writing literary history with a transnational focus These chapters illustrate how such a perspective loosens the epistemic stranglehold of national historiographies but they also argue that the transnational and national agendas of literary historiography are frequently entangled The chapters in Part 3 identify transnational genres such as the transnational historical novel transnational migrant fiction and translinguistic theatre and analyse the specific poetics and politics of these genres
