Exporter,1928 A Song for Europe RobertDeam Tobin,2017-07-05 The world s largest and longest running song competition the Eurovision Song Contest is a significant and extremely popular media event throughout the continent and abroad The Contest is broadcast live in over 30 countries with over 100 million viewers annually Established in 1956 as a televised spectacle to unify postwar Western Europe through music the Contest features singers who represent a participating nation with a new popular song Viewers vote by phone for their favourite performance though they cannot vote for their own country s entry This process alone reveals much about national identities and identifications as voting patterns expose deep seated alliances and animosities among participating countries Here an international group of scholars from a variety of disciplines including musicology communications history sociology English and German studies explore how the contest sheds light on issues of European politics national and European identity race gender and sexuality and the aesthetics of camp For some countries participation in Eurovision has been simultaneously an assertion of modernity and a claim to membership in Europe and the West Eurovision is sometimes regarded as a low brow camp spectacle of little aesthetic or intellectual value The essays in this collection often contradict this assumption demonstrating that the contest has actually been a significant force and forecaster for social cultural and political transformations in postwar Europe

Song at Dawn Jean Gill, 2020-12-23 The Troubadours like Game Of Thrones with real history Estela de Marin would give anything to be a troubadour She becomes a pawn in a perilous game of queens reliant on her golden voice and a dagger hidden in her underskirt Scarred by the crusades Dragonetz los Pros now fights with sword and song for a more enlightened world where faith has no colour When he meets the runaway girl in a ditch the whole world changes Winner of the Global Ebooks Award for Best Historical Fiction 1150 Provence Death on her heels Estela runs towards a new identity Her life depends on singing true for Ali nor of Aquitaine but her heart cares more for her tutor s judgement Dragonetz knows he must not love this troublesome student but their duet makes its own demands Will their secrets kill them both Dragonetz and Estela are an explosive combination which their powerful enemies intend to blast into smithereens Set in the period following the Second Crusade Jean Gill s spellbinding romantic thrillers evoke medieval France with breathtaking accuracy The characters leap off the page and include amazing women who shaped history in battles and in bedchambers Book 1 of the award winning Historical Fiction series The Troubadours Quartet Believable page turning and memorable Lela Michael S P Review Historical Fiction at its best Karen Charlton the Detective Lavender Mysteries Historical Novel Society Editor s Choice Finalist in the Wishing Shelf Awards and the Chaucer Awards Mockingbird Song Jack Temple Kirby, 2009-11-05 The American South is generally warmer wetter weedier snakier and more insect infested and disease prone than other regions of the country It is alluring to the scientifically and poetically minded alike With Mockingbird Song Jack Temple Kirby offers a personal and passionate recounting of the centuries old human nature relationship in the South Exhibiting violent cycles of growth abandonment dereliction resettlement and reconfiguration this relationship Kirby suggests has the sometimes melodious sometimes cacophonous vocalizations of the region s emblematic avian the mockingbird In a narrative voice marked by the intimacy and enthusiasm of a storyteller Kirby explores all of the South s peoples and their landscapes how humans have used yielded or manipulated varying environments and how they have treated forests water and animals Citing history literature and cinematic portrayals along the way Kirby also relates how southerners have thought about their part of Earth as a source of both sustenance and delight Song for the Blue Ocean Carl Safina, 2010-04-01 Part odyssey part pilgrimage this epic personal narrative follows the author s exploration of coasts islands reefs and the sea s abyssal depths Scientist and fisherman Carl Safina takes readers on a global journey of discovery probing for truth about the world's changing seas deftly weaving adventure science and political analysis

Contested Waterscapes in the Mekong Region Francois Molle,Tira Foran,Mira Kakonen,2012-05-04 The catchment area of the Mekong River and its tributaries extends from China through Burma Myanmar Thailand Laos Cambodia and to Vietnam The water resources of the Mekong region from the Irrawaddy and Nu Salween in the west across the Chao Phraya to the Lancang Mekong and Red River in the east are increasingly contested Governments companies and banks are driving new investments in roads dams diversions irrigation schemes navigation facilities power plants and other emblems of conventional development Their plans and interventions should provide some benefits but also pose multiple burdens and risks to millions of people dependent on wetlands floodplains and aquatic resources in particular the wild capture fisheries of rivers and lakes This book examines how large scale projects are being proposed justified and built How are such projects contested and how do specific governance regimes influence decision making The book also highlights the emergence of new actors rights and trade off debates and the social and environmental consequences of water resources development This book shows how diverse and often antagonistic ideologies and interests are contesting for legitimacy It argues that the distribution of decision making political and discursive power influences how the waterscapes of the region will ultimately look and how benefits costs and risks will be distributed These issues are crucial for the transformation of waterscapes and the prospects for democratizing water governance in the Mekong region The book is part of the action research of the M POWER Mekong Program on Water Environment and Resilience knowledge network Published with IFAD CG AR Challenge Program on Water Food M POWER Project ECHEL EAU and HEINRICH BOLL STIFTUNG

Emperor Huizong Patricia Buckley Ebrey,2014-01-06 The first comprehensive English language biography of Emperor Huizong corrects the prevailing view of this ruler as a decadent political failure who lost the throne to invaders Ebrey recasts the artistically gifted emperor as passionate and paradoxical yet genuinely ambitious if too much so in pursuing glory for his flourishing realm

October Song Paul Le Blanc,2017-11-14 A panoramic account of the Russian Revolution of 1917 and its aftermath animated by the lives ideas and experiences of workers peasants intellectuals artists and revolutionaries of diverse persuasions October Song vividly narrates the triumphs of those who struggled for a new society and created a revolutionary workers state Yet despite profoundly democratic and humanistic aspirations the revolution is eventually defeated by violence and authoritarianism October Song highlights both positive and negative lessons of this historic struggle for human liberation

The Trash Phenomenon Stacey Michele Olster,2003 The Trash Phenomenon looks at how writers of the late twentieth century not only have integrated the events artifacts and theories of popular culture into their works but also have used those works as windows into popular culture s role in the process of nation building Taking her cue from Donald Barthelme s 1967 portrayal of popular culture as trash and Don DeLillo s 1997 description of it as a subversive people s history Stacey Olster explores how literature recycles American popular culture so as to change the nationalistic imperative behind its inception The Trash Phenomenon begins with a look at the mass media s role in the United States emergence as the twentieth century s dominant power Olster discusses the works of three authors who collectively span the century bounded by the Spanish American War 1898 and the Persian Gulf War 1991 Gore Vidal s American Chronicle series John Updike s Rabbit tetralogy and Larry Beinhart s American Hero Olster then turns her attention to three non American writers whose works explore the imperial sway of American popular culture on their nation s value systems hierarchical class structure in Dennis Potter s England Peronism in Manuel Puig s Argentina and Nihonjinron consensus in Haruki Murakami s Japan Finally Olster returns to American literature to look at the contemporary media spectacle and the representative figure as potential sources of national consolidation after November 1963 Olster first focuses on autobiographical historical and fictional accounts of three spectacles in which the formulae of popular culture are shown to bypass differences of class gender and race the John F Kennedy assassination the Scarsdale Diet Doctor murder and the O J Simpson trial She concludes with some thoughts about the nature of American consolidation after 9 11

Musical Opinion and Music Trade Review
,1894 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1829 Chinese Painting and Its Audiences

Craig Clunas, 2023-10-17 A history of the reception of Chinese painting from the sixteenth century to the present What is Chinese painting When did it begin And what are the different associations of this term in China and the West In Chinese Painting and Its Audiences which is based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts given at the National Gallery of Art leading art historian Craig Clunas draws from a wealth of artistic masterpieces and lesser known pictures some of them discussed here in English for the first time to show how Chinese painting has been understood by a range of audiences over five centuries from the Ming Dynasty to today Chinese Painting and Its Audiences demonstrates that viewers in China and beyond have irrevocably shaped this great artistic tradition Arguing that audiences within China were crucially important to the evolution of Chinese painting Clunas considers how Chinese artists have imagined the reception of their own work By examining paintings that depict people looking at paintings he introduces readers to ideal types of viewers the scholar the gentleman the merchant the nation and the people In discussing the changing audiences for Chinese art Clunas emphasizes that the diversity and quantity of images in Chinese culture make it impossible to generalize definitively about what constitutes Chinese painting Exploring the complex relationships between works of art and those who look at them Chinese Painting and Its Audiences sheds new light on how the concept of Chinese painting has been formed and reformed over hundreds of years Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
