Patterson,2018-09-03 Long before the followers of Jesus declared him to be the Son of God Jesus taught his followers that they too were the children of God This ancient creed now all but forgotten is recorded still within the folds of a letter of Paul the Apostle Paul did not create this creed nor did he fully embrace it but he quoted it and thus preserved it for a time when it might become important once again This ancient creed said nothing about God or Christ or salvation Its claims were about the whole human race there is no race there is no class there is no gender This is the story of that first forgotten creed and the world of its begetting a world in which foreigners were feared slaves were human chattel and men questioned whether women were really human after all Into this world the followers of Jesus proclaimed You are all children of God There is no Jew or Greek no slave or free no male and female for you are all one Where did this remarkable statement of human solidarity come from and what finally happened to it How did Christianity become a Gentile religion that despised Jews condoned slavery as the will of God and championed patriarchy Christian theologians would one day argue about the nature of Christ the being of God and the mechanics of salvation But before this in the days when Jesus was still fresh in the memory of those who knew him the argument was a different one how can human beings overcome the ways by which we divide ourselves one from another Is solidarity possible beyond race class and gender A Commentary on the Letters of John Birger Olsson,2013-08-13 The long history of interpretation of the three Johannine letters has been largely characterized at least since Irenaeus in the late second century by the assumption that the Elder was addressing the Gnostic heresy In recent years particularly with the work of Raymond Brown attention has been focused on the internal schism within the Johannine or Beloved Disciple s community thus taking the first epistle as a corrective to secessionists misguided attempts to read the Gospel of John in an advanced spiritualizing manner Birger Olsson returns to a less common perspective one that views the crisis facing the Elder as a wholly intra Jewish problem The Johannine community comprised Jewish believers who regarded Jesus as the long promised Messiah of Israel but at some point in the community s life under the leadership of one Diotrephes some members of the community chose to reject this conviction and to entice other members to do likewise Olsson anchors his thoroughgoing interpretation of the three letters in this conflict among Jewish Christians over the nature of the Messiah and the renewal of Israel s ancient covenant Among other things this implies that the letters were written in reverse order of their numbering How to Read the Bible Steven L McKenzie,2009-04-13 More people read the Bible than any other book and as Steven McKenzie shows in this provocative volume most of us misread it McKenzie argues that to comprehend the Bible we must grasp the intentions of the biblical authors themselves what sort of texts they thought they were writing and how they would have been understood by their contemporaries McKenzie examines several genres that are typically misunderstood offering careful readings of specific texts to show how the confusion arises and how knowing the genre produces a correct reading The Ministry, Vol. 09, No. 10 Various Authors,2005-12-01 This issue of The Ministry contains the last nine messages given during the 2004 spring term of the Full time Training in Anaheim California The general subject of this series of messages is the God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob In a simple basic way the God of Abraham is the God of justification the God of Isaac is the God of grace and the God of Jacob is the God of transformation through divine discipline Messages 2 through 7 of the October 2005 issue of The Ministry presented the God of Abraham Messages 8 and 9 of that issue presented the God of Isaac In this issue Message 10 concludes the fellowship concerning the God of Isaac Isaac signifies our living a life of enjoying God hence we live a grace enjoying life for God s good pleasure Messages 11 through 17 present the God of Jacob The God of Jacob who is the God of transformation issues in the God of Israel who is the God of the transformed Jacob Message 18 presents the Israel of God All the experiences of the Father the Son and the Spirit represented by the lives and experiences of Abraham Isaac and Jacob are to produce this corporate person the Israel of God We do not have the experiences of the God of Abraham merely to be spiritual persons we do not enter into the experiences represented by Isaac simply to be individuals enjoying God s grace in a personal way and we do not go through all the experiences represented by Jacob's long life just to end up as spiritual individuals who have some spiritual stature God desires a corporate person He wants a people to express Him and represent Him Last of all we include a report concerning the Lord's move in the United Kingdom

Christ and Community Suzanne Watts Henderson, 2015-04-21 You are the Christ we are your church Christ and Community The Gospel Witness to Jesus casts new light on how Jesus's followers sought to faithfully live into the reign of God as recorded in the Gospels Dr Henderson traces the contours of Jesus's messiahship found in the four Gospels but rather than taking each Gospel in turn she works thematically treating different aspects of Jesus's mission and identity found across the four accounts Rather than assuming Jesus's exclusive status the author exposes Gospel evidence for the clear communal implications of his messiahship It turns out that the Gospels do more than simply affirm that Jesus is the Christ they cast a vision of messianic community for those who would call him Lord in the first century and beyond This accessible introduction offers a case for Christ and community that answers perplexing questions that have long plagued NT study Christ and Community The Gospel Witness to Jesus by Suzanne Watts Henderson One approach to understanding the Gospels as scripture is to consider their functions specifically how these writings describe and reinforce essential connections between Jesus followers and their Lord Written as an introductory textbook Christ and Community can help even seasoned exegetes grasp the means by which the Gospels stories depict Jesus work and identity in ways that equip Christian communities to make sense of their own work and identity The Christian Century Oct 07 2015
