Sophisticated Traveler Beloved Cities:

The Sophisticated Traveler Abraham Michael Rosenthal, 1985 Practical tips on travel accompany essays about London Paris Rome and Athens by V S Pritchett Rona Jaffe Saul Bellow Muriel Spark and Jan Morris Beloved Cities Abraham Michael Rosenthal, 1986 Omfatter London Paris Rom og Athen The Sophisticated Traveler Abraham Michael Rosenthal, Arthur Gelb, 1984 The Informed Air Muriel Spark, 2013-04-15 Now in paperback here are the sparkling essays of Muriel Spark the writer of the best sentences in English The New Yorker A fantastic essayist the inimitable Muriel Spark addresses here the writing life cats favorite writers the Bront s T S Eliot Robert Burns Mary Shelley love Piero della Francesca life in wartime London and in glamorous Hollywood on the Tiber 1960s Rome faith and parties on her first New Year s Eve as a baby sipping her mother s sherry I always loved a party No one was as fearless and original TLS as Muriel Spark who believed that art is an act of daring Here she glides from the mysteries of Job s sufferings to Dame Edith Sitwell s cocktail advice about how to handle a nasty publisher My dear she said you must acquire a pair of lorgnettes make an occasion to see that man again focus the glasses on him and sit looking at him through them as if he was an insect Just look and look Kiplinger's Personal Finance , 1985-04 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics The Only Street in Paris Elaine Sciolino, 2015-10-22 A New York Times Bestseller Sciolino s sharply observed account serves as a testament to Paris the city of light of literature of life itself The New Yorker Elaine Sciolino the former Paris Bureau Chief of the New York Times invites us on a tour of her favorite Parisian street offering an homage to street life and the pleasures of Parisian living I can never be sad on the rue des Martyrs Sciolino explains as she celebrates the neighborhood s rich history and vibrant lives While many cities suffer from the leveling effects of globalization the rue des Martyrs maintains its distinct allure On this street the patron saint of France was beheaded and the Jesuits took their first vows It was here that Edgar Degas and Pierre Auguste Renoir painted circus acrobats Emile Zola situated a lesbian dinner club in his novel Nana and Fran ois Truffaut filmed scenes from The 400 Blows Sciolino reveals the charms and idiosyncrasies of this street and its longtime residents the Tunisian greengrocer the husband and wife cheesemongers the showman who s been running a transvestite cabaret for more than half a century the owner of a 100 year old bookstore the woman who repairs eighteenth century mercury barometers bringing Paris alive in all of its unique majesty The Only Street in Paris will make readers hungry for Paris for cheese and wine and for the kind of street life that is all too quickly disappearing Anthropological Locations Akhil Gupta, James Ferguson, 2023-09-01 Among the social sciences anthropology relies most fundamentally on fieldwork the long term immersion in another way of life as the basis for knowledge In an era when anthropologists are studying topics that resist geographical localization this book initiates a long overdue discussion of the political and epistemological implications of the disciplinary commitment to fieldwork These innovative stimulating essays carefully chosen to form a coherent whole interrogate the notion of the field showing how the concept is historically constructed and exploring the consequences of its dominance. The essays discuss anthropological work done in places in refugee camps on television or among populations gays and lesbians homeless people in the United States that challenge the traditional boundaries of the field. The contributors suggest alternative methodologies appropriate for contemporary problems and ultimately propose a reformation of the discipline of anthropology. Among the social sciences anthropology relies most fundamentally on fieldwork the long term immersion in another way of life as the basis for knowledge. In an era when anthropologists are studying topics that resist geographical localization this book

Routes James Clifford, 1997-04-21 When culture makes itself at home in motion where does an anthropologist stand Clifford offers a new view of anthropology. It is he says a moving picture of a world that reveals itself en route. In this collage of essays meditations poems and travel reports Clifford takes travel and translation as openings into a complex modernity.

We'll Always Have Paris Harvey Levenstein, 2010-03-15 For much of the twentieth century Americans had a love hate relationship with France. While many admired its beauty culture refinement and famed joie de vivre others thought of it as a dilapidated country populated by foul smelling mean spirited anti Americans driven by a keen desire to part tourists from their money. We'll Always Have Paris explores how both images came to flourish in the United States often in the minds of the same people. Harvey Levenstein takes us back to the 1930s when despite the Great Depression France continued to be the stomping ground of the social elite of the eastern seaboard. After World War II wealthy and famous Americans returned to the country in droves helping to revive its old image as a wellspring of sophisticated and sybaritic pleasures. At the same time though thanks in large part to Communist and Gaullist campaigns against U.S. power a growing sensitivity to French anti Americanism began to color tourists experiences there strengthening the negative images of the French that were already embedded in American culture. But as the century drew on the traditional positive images were revived as many Americans again developed an appreciation for France's cuisine art and urban and rustic charms. Levenstein in his colorful anecdotal style digs into personal correspondence journalism and popular culture to shape a story of one nation's relationship to another giving vivid play to Americans changing response to such things as France's reputation for sexual freedom haute cuisine high fashion and racial tolerance. He puts this tumultuous coupling of France and the United States in historical perspective arguing that while some in Congress say we may no longer have french fries others like Humphrey Bogart in Casablanca know they will always have Paris and France to enjoy and remember.

Desiring Italy Susan Cahill, 1997-04-15 For centuries Italy has been many things to many people. In this brilliant anthology and traveler's companion twenty eight first rate women writers reveal why the land that is the heart and soul of European civilization is so seductive to women.
