The Black Cultural Front Brian Dolinar, 2012-04-27 This book examines the formation of a black cultural front by looking at the works of poet Langston Hughes novelist Chester Himes and cartoonist Ollie Harrington While none of these writers were card carrying members of the Communist Party they all participated in the Left during their careers Interestingly they all turned to creating popular culture in order to reach the black masses who were captivated by movies radio newspapers and detective novels There are chapters on Hughes's Simple stories Himes's detective fiction and Harrington's Bootsie cartoons Collectively the experience of these three figures contributes to the story of a long movement for African American freedom that flourished during the 1930s 1940s and 1950s Yet this book also stresses the impact that McCarthyism had on dismantling the Black Left and how it affected each individual involved Each was radicalized at a different moment and for different reasons
