Sorrowful Mysteries Other Stories:

Sorrowful Mysteries and Other Stories Normandi Ellis, 1991 The Secret of the Old Warehouse, And Other Stories Imelda Rose Kaufman, 2023-02-09 Jacob Malloy was a strong energetic lad of thirteen who lived with his family in the small suburb of Baytown His life was far from boring because school and church always provided plenty of activities However being of an inquisitive nature Jake was ever ready for something new and different He was intrigued by an old abandoned warehouse near the railroad tracks What it had been used for originally he had no idea but he was itching to get inside and look around Surely there must be something of interest in that old building Any chance of his being able to satisfy his curiosity however seemed nonexistent because the windows were boarded up Imagine his surprise when one Saturday on his way to his friend s house he noticed that one of the boards had come loose and was hanging by a nail This was an opportunity not to be missed He convinced his friend a rather reluctant Joe Reilly to accompany him on this adventure Together they managed to open the window and squeeze through it The boys found that though seemingly abandoned the building was not vacant Their adventure turned deadly when they were discovered and imprisoned The story shifts back and forth from them to their frantic parents and friends and the efforts made to find them There is a story within the story as friends Robert and Jonathan and their parents have an adventure of their own and make a life changing discovery A Parallel Life and Other Stories Robin Beeman, 2014-04-08 The acclaimed author of The Lost Art of Desire explores grief and longing in the face of illness in this delicate atmospheric story collection Kirkus In the ten spare yet surprising stories in this collection Robin Beeman delves into the inner lives of ordinary women revealing their passions and frustrations with the limitations of life In Life Signs a dying woman spends her final days camping on a beach with her husband A man facing the death of his dog relives the traumatic loss of his father in Secrets And in the title novella a married librarian gets romantically involved with an insurance salesman whose wife is struggling with cancer Home and Beyond Morris Allen Grubbs, 2013-04-06 A bountiful smorgasbord of classic and lesser known stories by accomplished Kentucky writers who provide a feast for readers of modern short fiction Ann Charters author of The Story and Its Writer With an introduction by Wade Hall Morris Grubbs has sifted through vintage classics little known gems and stunning debuts to assemble this collection of forty stories by popular and critically acclaimed writers In subtle and profound ways they challenge and overturn accepted stereotypes about the land their authors call home whether by birth or by choice Kentucky writers have produced some of the finest short stories published in the last fifty years much of which focuses on the tension between the comforts of community and the siren like lure of the outside world Arranged chronologically from Robert Penn Warren s Blackberry Winter to Crystal E Wilkinson s Humming Back Yesterday these stories are linked by their juxtaposition of departures and returns the familiar and the unknown home and beyond The story of the Commonwealth of Kentucky is told and retold by a mixed but balanced chorus of voices that sings like the wind down the ridges and along the creekbeds Appalachian Journal Readers needn t be from Kentucky to appreciate these stories Prepare to be wowed by these superior examples of the form The Bloomsbury Review From Robert Penn Warren to Bobbie Ann Mason Kentucky hatches writers like other states create tourist traps The Nashville Tennessean If you love Kentucky authors this anthology of short stories is a must for your Kentucky collection Bourbon Times Heart of the Sun Candace C. The Story Behind the Mail M. J. Washington, 2022-08-01 Sweet Mother of Christ Hallelujah Seems like an avalanche has rolled up to my door The mailbox was stuffed with letters from several different organizations and a couple of catalogs and being a Tuesday there was also a wad of junk mail Remembering the thick manila envelope I'd received from the VFW Veterans of Foreign Wars in mid January with an assortment of gifts a nice tablet size calculator all occasion cards address labels a couple of notepads a calendar even a gift bag My conscience just wouldn't let me rest after receiving all these cool little gifts I just had to send a donation to help with postage and handling I think that's what caused the avalanche of mail that landed at my door Deciding right then to keep a count of all incoming mail I began to write down the names and contents of each envelope thinking it couldn't possibly be too many more after this shipment Boy was I ever wrong I started receiving cards of all kind prayer booklets prayer relics rosaries crucifixes and medals Besides the letters the phone calls started so I started listing them too Within a couple of weeks I had accumulated several pages of organizations requesting help either by phone or postal service And the brain being the peculiar organ that it is my brain anyway it gets restless at times for more activity Firing up the computer I started a real list of all the charitable organizations I hear from daily and decided to make my list an open project

The wild ass' skin. The chouans, and other stories—[v.2] The country doctor. The quest of the absolute, and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1899 Fado and Other Stories Katherine Vaz, 2013-11-27 Winner of the 1997 Drue Heinz Literature Prize This collection is filled with narrative and character grounded in the meaning and value the earth gives to human existence In one story a woman sleeps with the village priest trying to gain back the land the church took from her family in another relatives in the Azores fight over a plot of land owned by their expatriate American cousin Even apparently small images are cast in terms of the earth Milton one narrator explains has made apples the object of a misunderstanding by naming them as Eden s fruit In the Bible no fruit is named in the Garden of Eden and to this day apples are misunderstood They were trying to tempt people not into sin but into listening to the earth more closely their white meal runs wet with the knowledge of the language of the land but people do not listen Vaz s beautiful intensely conscious language often delicately slips her stories into the realm of the fado the Portuguese song about fate and longing Listen for the nightingale that presses its breast against the thorns of the rose on character sings that the song might be more beautiful Such a verse might describe Vaz s own motive behind her willingness to confront her subject s ambiguities and her characters conflicts the simultaneous joy and sorrow of some of life s discoveries the pain sometimes hidden within passion and pleasure

Conversations with Andre Dubus Olivia Carr Edenfield,2013-08-01 Over three decades celebrated fiction writer Andre Dubus 1936 1999 published seven collections of short stories two collections of essays two collections of previously published stories two novels and a novella While this is an impressive publishing record for any writer for Dubus who suffered a near fatal accident mid career it is near miraculous Just after midnight on July 23 1986 after stopping to assist two stranded motorists Dubus was struck by a car His right leg was crushed and his left leg had to be amputated above the knee After months of hospital stays and surgeries he would suffer chronic pain for the rest of his life However when he gave his first interview after the accident his deepest fear was that he would never write again This collection of interviews traces his career beginning in 1967 with the publication of his novel The Lieutenant to his final interview given right before his death February 24 1999 In between are conversations that focus on his shift to essay writing during his long recovery period as well as those that celebrate his return to fiction with the publication of The Colonel s Wife in 1993 Dubus would also share stories surrounding his Louisiana childhood his three marriages the writers who influenced him and his deep Catholic faith

Testing the Faith Anita Gandolfo,1992-01-30 Since 1965 there has been an explosion of fiction about being Catholic clearly a result of confusions in the post Vatican II church American Catholic culture has suffered severe dislocations and fiction has provided one way of coping with those dislocations In Testing the Faith Anita Gandolfo provides an overview of fiction about the American Catholic experience The book considers emerging novelists such as Mary Gordon and Valerie Sayers and established writers like Paul Theroux Among the popular writers covered are Andrew Greeley and William X Keinzle The volume also considers the emergence of new young writers such as Jeanne Schinto Sheila O Connor and Philip Deaver By analyzing patterns in contemporary Catholic fiction Gandolfo shows both the shared interest these writers have in the Catholic experience and their individual perspectives on that experience The book is the first to consider post Vatican II Catholic literature and will be of interest to those concerned with both the Catholic experience and current literature

"Amen, I Say to You" Clyde A. Bonar,2007-11-06 Amen I Say to You includes homilies for Cycles A B and C of the liturgical year and a homily for each Holy Day of Obligation within the Roman Catholic Church Each homily consist of three main points with supporting examples and illustrations These are homilies I have preached and they have been constructed with attention to verbal presentation Another homilist easily should be able to substitute or include examples from his or her own pastoral or lived experience within the conceptual structure each homily provides These homilies are not essays they include no long convoluted hard to understand sentences I try for simplicity of words and sentences for concrete language everyone can understand Feedback from posting some of the homilies on the internet has characterized the homilies as well planned with ideas placed in a logical and precise order They have been called simple personal and practical very inspired and insightful containing deep reflection and authentic Christian faith and illustrative applied and down to earth practical

The Mourning Light R. B. Craven,2021-04-27 Anyone experiencing grief over the loss of a loved one has a long and sad road to travel a journey that can seem like an endless tunnel The Mourning Light is one woman s journey through several such tunnels In exploring her feelings and experiences through journal entries of life stories and poems she came to a place of peace and light She hopes to lead others to their own places of hope faith and love The Mourning Light guides us to cope with the feelings that accompany grief to live and love in the present and to see a life after death It is a journey of compassion and unconditional love for oneself and for others Ignazio Silone Maria Nicolai Paynter,2000-01-01

Throughout his life the internationally known novelist short story writer and journalist Ignazio Silone 1900 1978 struggled indomitably for social justice In this book Maria Nicolai Paynter discusses the many controversial issues surrounding Silone and his writing analysing in detail his intellectual and political convictions and assesses the artistic achievement and stylistic development in his works Paynter argues that a profound authenticity is at the core of Silone s writing and that his tragic vision emanates from a concept of heroism based not on pride and self serving defiance but rather on moral courage and integrity Northrop Frye s archetypal criticism and his concept of ironic myth provide the theoretical framework through which Paynter guides the reader to an understanding of Silone s particular brand of realism and his unique message Ignazio Silone Beyond the Tragic Vision is a new expanded version in English of an earlier Italian language book which won the Premio Internazionale Letterario Ignazio Silone It is the first comprehensive book in English on Silone s life his writings and their critical reception God's Love Story Michael Laurence,2006-04 Starting with a review of salvation history the four Mysteries of the Rosary are examined and linked to God s plan for man as shown in the Bible The protective power of the Rosary and prayer are examined
