

Ed Ruscha and Huntsman for the Alzheimer's Association

BY ALEXANDRA CHENIL | 25 OCT 2016

NEW YORK — Ed Ruscha fans have a chance to bid on an exclusive new work — though they might be surprised by the medium. To benefit the Alzheimer's Association, Huntsman Savile Row and the celebrated American artist have designed a one-of-a-kind tuxedo jacket lined with a silk print of his 1986 painting "Boy Meets Girl." owned by actress and model Lauren Hutton. Made-to-measure for the winning bidder, the bespoke piece is one of six editions to be produced (though the only one to be sold) and comes with a personal invitation to visit Ruscha's Los Angeles studio.

"I like the idea of a concealed secret," says Ruscha. "When someone wears a great jacket, there is a private luxury that only the wearer can experience, almost like you are flashing."

From printing the lining to tailoring the classic silhouette, the entire process was a collaborative effort that lasted almost a year. "Technically, it's quite a task that you have to take on," says Carol French, general manager at Huntsman, a brand that has dressed everyone from Queen Victoria and Winston Churchill to Katharine Hepburn and Marc Jacobs. "You cut the actual lining so that all the detail of the painting matches up perfectly."

All proceeds from the sale will benefit the Alzheimer's Association. Silent auction bids are currently being accepted online until 12 PM (Noon) ET on 25 October before the 33rd Annual Rita Hayworth Gala at Cipriani 42nd Street in New York City, where the highest online bid will become the opening bid during the evening's live charity auction, conducted by Sotheby's Vice Chairman, Americas Hugh Hidesley.

friend and confidante Thomas Jefferson on Wine John Hailman, 2009-09-18 In Thomas Jefferson on Wine John Hailman celebrates a founding father's lifelong interest in wine and provides unprecedented insight into Jefferson's character from this unique perspective. In both his personal and public lives Jefferson wielded his considerable expertise to influence the drinking habits of his friends, other founding fathers, and the American public away from hard liquor toward the healthier pleasures of wine. An international wine judge and nationally syndicated wine columnist, Hailman discusses how Jefferson's tastes developed, which wines and foods he preferred at different stages of his life, and how Jefferson became the greatest wine expert of the early American republic. Hailman explores the third president's fascination with scores of wines from his student days at Williamsburg to his lengthy retirement years at Monticello, using mainly Jefferson's own words from hundreds of immensely readable and surprisingly modern letters on the subject. Hailman examines Jefferson's five critical years in Paris, where he learned about fine wines at Europe's salons and dinner tables as American Ambassador. The book uses excerpts from Jefferson's colorful travel journals of his visits to France, Italy, and Germany, as well as his letters to friends and wine merchants, some of whose descendants still produce the wines Jefferson enjoyed. Vivid contemporaneous accounts of dinners at the White House allow readers to experience vicariously Jefferson's Champagne diplomacy. The book concludes with an overview of the current restoration of the vineyards at Monticello and the new Monticello Wine Trail, and its numerous world-class Virginia wineries. In Thomas Jefferson on Wine, Hailman presents an absorbing and unique view of this towering historical figure.
