The Politics of the Spirit Timothy J. Steigenga, 2002-05-24 The Politics of the Spirit is a masterful study of the political effects of evangelical Protestantism in Central America Timothy Steigenga's thoughtfully crafted work questions whether the spread of Protestantism in Latin America has reinforced authoritarian elements in political culture or deepened nascent democracy Steigenga provides a thorough review of the literature on religion and politics in Latin America putting many of the hypotheses generated in this literature to the test through an analysis of comparative survey data and qualitative interviews Steigenga investigates the impact religious affiliation has on political activity and belief and the influence of cross denominational religious beliefs and practices on Latin American life His comparative work explores how different political systems the established democracy of Costa Rica and the transitional system of Guatemala impact the politics of religion This enlightening interdisciplinary book will appeal to scholars seeking to understand the relationships between religious and political change in Latin America

Politics Latin America Gavin O'Toole, 2014-05-12 This is a volume which will become invaluable to those attempting to guide the neophyte through the maze of politics in Latin America Journal of Latin American Studies Politics Latin America examines the role of Latin America in the world and its importance to the study of politics with particular emphasis on the institutions and processes that exist to guarantee democracy and the forces that threaten to compromise it Now in its second edition and fully revised to reflect recent developments in the region Politics Latin America provides students and teachers with an accessible overview of the region's unique political and economic landscape covering every aspect of governance in its 21 countries The book examines the international relations of Latin American states as they seek to carve out a role in an increasingly globalised world and will be an ideal introduction for undergraduate courses in Latin American politics and comparative politics

Political and Religious Identities of British Evangelicals Andrea C. Hatcher, 2017-07-19 This book examines the paradoxical relationship between the religious and political behaviors of American and British Evangelicals who exhibit nearly identical religious canon and practice but sharply divergent political beliefs and action Relying on interviews with British religious and political elites journalists MPs activists clergy as well as focus groups in ten Evangelical congregations this study reveals that British Evangelicals unlike their American counterparts known for their extensive involvement in party politics have no discernible ideological or partisan orientation choosing to pursue their political interests through civic or social organizations rather than electoral influence It goes further to show that many British Evangelicals shun the label itself for its negative political connotations and in out group sensibility and choose to focus on a broader social justice imperative rendered almost incoherent by a lack of group identity Placing itself at the forefront of an incipient but growing segment of comparative research into the intersectionality of religion and politics the work satisfies a lacuna of how the same religious tradition can act differently in public squares contextualized by political and cultural variables

Reason to Believe David Smilde, 2007-07-02 Evangelical Protestantism has arguably become the fastest growing religion in South America if not the world For converts it emphasizes self discipline and provides a network of communal support which together have helped many overcome substance abuse avoid crime and violence and resolve relationship problems But can people simply decide to believe in a religion because of the benefits it reportedly delivers Based on extensive fieldwork among Pentecostal men in Caracas Venezuela this rich urban ethnography seeks an explanation for the explosion of Evangelical Protestantism unraveling the cultural and personal dynamics of Evangelical conversion to show how and why these men make the choice to convert and how they come to have faith in a new system of beliefs and practices The Church on the World's Turf Paul Bramadat,2000 In order to explain this apparent contradiction

Bramadat conducts interviews with members of the McMaster IVCF and explores their various survival strategies He shows that the secular setting is contested turf a context within which believers engage in a complex process of negotiation in an attempt to find a fertile place for themselves and the small number of true Christians in a rapidly changing world BOOK

Theologians of a New World Order Heather A. Warren, 1997-09-25 This book tells how a group of Protestant theologians forged a theology of international engagement for America in the 1930s and 40s and how in doing so they informed the public rationale for the United States participation in World War II and stimulated American leadership in establishing both secular and international organizations for the promotion of world order This remarkable group included Henry P Van Dusen Reinhold Niebuhr John Bennett Francis P Miller Georgia Harkness and Samuel McCrea Cavert Warren show how in creating a coherent theologically derived position and bringing it to bear on contemporary international issues this group combined ideas with public action in a way that set the standard for American theologians social activism in the years to come

God and Caesar in China Jason Kindopp, Carol Lee Hamrin, 2004-04-21 In the late 1970s when Mao's Cultural Revolution ushered in China's reform era religion played a small role in the changes the country was undergoing There were few symbols of religious observance and the practice of religion seemed a forgotten art Yet by the new millennium China's government reported that more than 200 million religious believers worshiped in 85 000 authorized venues and estimates by outside observers continue to rise The numbers tell the story Buddhists as in the past are most numerous with more than 100 million adherents Muslims number 18 million with the majority concentrated in the northwest region of Xinjiang By 2000 China's Catholic population had swelled from 3 million in 1949 to more than 12 million surpassing the number of Catholics in Ireland Protestantism in China has grown at an even faster pace during the same period multiplying from 1 million to at least 30 million followers China now has the world's second largest evangelical Christian population behind only the United States In addition a host of religious and quasi spiritual groups and sects has also sprouted up in virtually every corner of Chinese society Religion's dramatic revival in post Mao China has generated tensions between the ruling Communist Party state and China's increasingly diverse population of religious adherents Such tensions are rooted in centuries old governing practices and reflect the pressures of rapid modernization The state's response has been a mixture of accommodation and repression with the aim of preserving monopoly control over religious organization Its inability to do so effectively has led to cycles of persecution of religious groups that resist the party's efforts American concern over official acts of religious persecution has become a leading issue in U S policy toward China The passage of the 1998 International Religious Freedom Act which institutionalized concern over religious freedom abroad in U

S foreign policy cemented this issue as an item on the agenda of U S China relations God and Caesar in China examines China s religion policy the history and growth of Catholic and Protestant churches in China and the implications of church state friction for relations between the United States and China concluding with recommendations for U S policy Contributors include Jason Kindopp George Washington University Daniel H Bays Calvin College Mickey Spiegel Human Rights Watch Chan Kim kwong Hong Kong Christian Council Jean Paul Wiest Chinese University of Hong Kong Richard Madsen University of California San Diego Xu Yihua Fudan University Liu Peng Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and Carol Lee Hamrin George Mason University Cities Roger S. Steffen, 2013-04-23 In this landmark book economist Steve Rundle and missiologist Tom Steffen offer their paradigm for the convergence of business and missions the Great Commission Company This revised and expanded edition provides new and updated case studies of Great Commission Companies in diverse contexts around the world

Mapping the End Times Dr Jason Dittmer, Dr Tristan Sturm, 2012-11-28 Over the last quarter century evangelicalism has become an important social and political force in modern America Here new voices in the field are brought together with leading scholars such as William E Connolly Michael Barkun Simon Dalby and Paul Boyer to produce a timely examination of the spatial dimensions of the movement offering useful and compelling insights on the intersection between politics and religion This comprehensive study discusses evangelicalism in its different forms from the moderates to the would be theocrats who in anticipation of the Rapture seek to impose their interpretations of the Bible upon American foreign policy The result is a unique appraisal of the movement and its geopolitical visions and the wider impact of these on America and the world at large Methodism and the Southern Mind, 1770-1810 Cynthia Lynn Lyerly, 1998 Early

Methodism was a despised and outcast movement that attracted the least powerful members of Southern societyslaves white women poor and struggling white men and invested them with a sense of worth and agency Methodists created a public sphere where secular rankings patriarchal order and racial hierarchies were temporarily suspended Because its members challenged Southern secular mores on so many levels Methodism evoked intense opposition especially from elite white men Methodism and the Southern Mind analyzes the public denunciations domestic assaults on Methodist women and children and mob violence against black Methodists
