Critique of Pure Music James O. Young, 2014-01-09 Why do we value music Many people report that listening to music is one of life s most rewarding activities In Critique of Pure Music James O Young seeks to explain why this is so Formalists tell us that music is appreciated as pure contentless form On this view listeners receive pleasure or a pleasurable musical emotion when they explore the abstract patterns found in music Music formalists believe does not arouse ordinary emotions such as joy melancholy or fear nor can it represent emotion or provide psychological insight Young holds that formalists are wrong on all counts Drawing upon the latest psychological research he argues that music is expressive of emotion by resembling human expressive behaviour By resembling human expressive behaviour music is able to arouse ordinary emotions in listeners This in turn makes possible the representation of emotion by music The representation of emotion in music gives music the capacity to provide psychological insight into the emotional lives of composers and the emotional lives of individuals from a variety of times and places And it is this capacity of music to provide psychological insight which explains a good deal of the value of music both vocal and purely instrumental Without it music could not be experienced as profound Philosophers psychologists musicians musicologists and music lovers will all find something of interest in this book the book evokes unique Marie Galantais views on tradition historicity esclavage nationalism and its absence and the local significance of occupying a globally out of the way place The book will be of interest not only to ethnomusicologists but also to those interested in cultural and linguistic anthropology postcolonial studies performance studies folklore and Caribbean Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuernberg Military The Eclectic review. vol. 1-New [8th], 1846 Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nurenberg, October 1946-April, 1949, 1951 Criminals Before the Nuernberg Military Tribunals Volume III Various, 2023-09-03 Excerpt In April 1949 judgment was rendered in the last of the series of 12 Nuernberg war crimes trials which had begun in October 1946 and were held pursuant to Allied Control Council Law No 10 Far from being of concern solely to lawyers these trials are of especial interest to soldiers historians students of international affairs and others The defendants in these proceedings charged with war crimes and other offenses against international penal law were prominent figures in Hitler's Germany and included such outstanding diplomats and politicians as the State Secretary of the Foreign Office von Weizsaecker and cabinet ministers von Krosigk and Lammers military leaders such as Field Marshals von Leeb List and von Kuechler SS leaders such as Ohlendorf Pohl and Hildebrandt industrialists such as Flick Alfried Krupp and the directors of I G Farben and leading professional men such as the famous physician Gerhard Rose and the jurist and Acting Minister of Justice Schlegelberger In view of the weight of the accusations and the far flung activities of the defendants and the extraordinary amount of official contemporaneous German documents introduced in evidence the records of these trials constitute a major source of historical material covering many events of the fateful years 1933 and even earlier to 1945 in Germany and elsewhere in Europe The Nuernberg trials under Law No 10 were carried out under the direct authority of the Allied Control Council as manifested in that law which authorized the establishment of the Tribunals The judicial machinery for the trials including the Military Tribunals and the Office Chief of Counsel for War Crimes was prescribed by Military Government Ordinance No 7 and was part of the occupation administration for the American zone the Office of Military Government OMGUS Law No 10 Ordinance No 7 and other basic jurisdictional or administrative documents are printed in full hereinafter. The proceedings in these trials were conducted throughout in the German and English languages and were recorded in full by stenographic notes and by electrical sound recording of all oral proceedings The 12 cases required over 1 200 days of court proceedings and the transcript of these proceedings exceeds 330 000 pages exclusive of hundreds of document books briefs etc Publication of all of this material accordingly was quite unfeasible This series however contains the indictments judgments and other important portions of the record of the 12 cases and it is believed that these materials give a fair picture of the trials and as full and illuminating a picture as is possible within the space available Copies of the entire record of the trials are available in the Library of Congress the National Archives and elsewhere In some cases due to time limitations errors of one sort or another have crept into the translations which were available to the Tribunal In other cases the same document appears in different trials or even at different parts of the same trial with variations in translation For the most part these inconsistencies have been allowed to remain and only such errors as might cause misunderstanding have been corrected
