Lessons I Learned From The Great Big Beautiful Life John Korsh, 2025-06-29 8 Uplifting Lessons I Learned From The Great Big Beautiful Life Inspired by Paul Wesselmann Personal Reflection Healing Grief and the Power of Moving On Paul Wesselmann did something rather peculiar in The Great Big Beautiful Life He refused to let grief follow a predictable path Most of us think of grief as a tunnel something dark that we pass through hoping there s light on the other end But Wesselmann treated grief like an invitation Not an invitation to wallow or even to recover but to live differently This book then is not a roadmap It is not a how to guide or a timeline of healing milestones It s something else Something more human More irregular As the way water moves down a hillside Sometimes it seems unstoppable Other times it s slow and meandering But it s always finding a way That s the crux of what lured me in and ultimately led me to think like this When I first read The Great Big Beautiful Life I wasn t seeking comfort I wasn t even sure what I was seeking But I knew I I was wanted to feel something that didn t sound like a therapist s itemization And what I discovered instead was a man who had lost someone he loved profoundly and had the audacity to create something beautiful in its wake Grab a copy of this book now
