The Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art Libby Lumpkin, 1998 The Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art Libby Lumpkin, 1998 The Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art (Las Vegas, Nev.), 1999 The Politics of Spatial Transgressions in the Arts Gregory Blair, Noa Bronstein, 2020-12-05 This book is an anthology of the varied strategies of spatial transgressions and how they have been implemented through the arts as a means to resist rejuvenate reclaim critique or cohabitate The book is divided into two sections Displacements and Disruptions The first section discusses the ramifications of the spatial displacements of bodies organizations groups of people and ethnicities and explores how artists theorists and arts organizations have an attentive history of revealing and reacting to the displacement of peoples and how their presence or absence radically reconfigures the value identity and uses of place In the second section each author considers how aesthetic strategies have been utilized to disrupt expected spatial experiences and logic Many of these strategies form radical alternative methodologies that include transgressions geographies of resistance and psychogeographies These spatial performances of disruption set into motion a critical exchange between the subject space and materiality in which ideology and experience are both produced spatialized and deconstructed destabilized Doubt Richard Shiff, 2012-04-23 In an age where art history s questions are now expected to receive answers Richard Shiff presents a challenging alternative In this essential new addition to James Elkins s series Theories of Modernism and Postmodernism in the Visual Arts Richard Shiff embraces doubt as a critical tool and asks how particular histories of art have come to be Shiff s turn to doubt is not a retreat to relativism but rather an insistence on clear thinking about art In particular Shiff takes issue with the style of self referential art writing seemingly licensed by Roland Barthes With an introduction by Rosie Bennett Doubt is a study of the tension between practicing art and practicing criticism In the Desert of Desire William L. Fox, 2007-08-01 Las Vegas says William Fox is a pay as you play paradise that succeeds in satisfying our fantasies of wealth and the excesses of pleasure and consumption that go with it In this context Fox examines how Las Vegas s culture of spectacle has obscured the boundaries between high art and entertainment extravaganza nature and fantasy for profit and nonprofit enterprises His purview ranges from casino art galleries including Steve Wynn s private collection and a branch of the famed Guggenheim Museum to the underfunded Las Vegas Art Museum from spectacular casino animal collections like those of magicians Siegfried and Roy and Mandalay Bay s Shark Reef exhibit to the city s lack of support for a viable public zoo from the environmental and psychological impact of lavish water displays in the arid desert to the artistic ambiguities intrinsic to Las Vegas s floating world of showgirls lapdancers and ballet divas That Las Vegas represents one of the world s most opulent displays of private material wealth in all its forms while providing miserly funding for local public amenities like museums and zoos is no accident Fox maintains Nor is it unintentional that the city s most important collections of art and exotic fauna are presented in the context of casino entertainment part of the feast of sensation and excitement that seduces millions of visitors each year

Instead this phenomenon shows how our insatiable modern appetite for extravagance and spectacle has diminished the power of unembellished nature and the arts to teach and inspire us and demonstrates the way our society privileges private benefit over public good Given that Las Vegas has been a harbinger of national cultural trends Fox s commentary offers prescient insight into the increasing commercialization of nature and culture across America Musings of a Modern Man: Essays and Research Papers Robert Milton Underwood, Jr.,2014-02-23 This book is a collection of essays and research papers on a wide variety of subjects including philosophy computers drama poetry literature history art music theology networking mathematics business economics transmission media and databases The Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art (Las Vegas, Nev.),1999 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.).
