The Best From Fsf 14th Series:

European Media Policy for the Twenty-First Century Seamus Simpson, Manuel Puppis, Hilde van den Bulck, 2016-01-29
Media policy issues sit at the heart of the structure and functioning of media systems in Europe and beyond This book brings together the work of a range of leading media policy scholars to provide inroads to a better understanding of how effective media policies can be developed to ensure a healthy communication sector that contributes to the wellbeing of individual citizens as well as a more democratic society Faced with a general atmosphere of disillusionment in the European project one of the core questions tackled by the volume s contributors is what scope is there for European media policy that can exist beyond the national level Uniquely the volume s chapters are structured around four key policy themes media convergence the continued role and position of public regulatory intervention in media policy policy issues arising from the development of new electronic communication network environments and lessons for European media policy from cases beyond the EU In its chapters the volume provides enriched understandings of the role and significance of policy actors institutions structures instruments and processes in communication and media policy The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction Peter Nicholls, 1979
