Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction Rediscovering Frank Yerby Matthew

Teutsch,2020-04-20 Contributions by Catherine L Adams Stephanie Brown Gene Andrew Jarrett John Wharton Lowe Guirdeux Mass Anderson Rouse Matthew Teutsch Donna lyn Washington and Veronica T Watson Rediscovering Frank Yerby Critical Essays is the first book length study of Yerby s life and work The collection explores a myriad of topics including his connections to the Harlem and Chicago Renaissances readership and reception representations of masculinity and patriotism film adaptations and engagement with race identity and religion The contributors to this collection work to rectify the misunderstandings of Yerby s work that have relegated him to the sidelines and ultimately begin a reexamination of the importance of the prince of pulpsters in American literature It was Robert Bone in The Negro Novel in America who infamously dismissed Frank Yerby 1916 1991 as the prince of pulpsters Like Bone many literary critics at the time criticized Yerby's lack of focus on race and the stereotypical treatment of African American characters in his books This negative labeling continued to stick to Yerby even as he gained critical success first with The Foxes of Harrow the first novel by an African American to sell more than a million copies and later as he began to publish more political works like Speak Now and The Dahomean However the literary community cannot continue to ignore Frank Yerby and his impact on American literature More than a fiction writer Yerby should be put in conversation with such contemporaneous writers as Richard Wright Dorothy West James Baldwin William Faulkner Margaret Mitchell and more
