The Best Years Of Our Lives:

The Hundred Greatest American Films Andrew J. Rausch, 2002 AFI Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1999 Bazin at Work Andre Bazin, 2014-04-04 Bazin's impact on film art as theorist and critic is considered to be greater than that of any single director actor or producer He is credited with almost single handedly establishing the study of film as an accepted intellectual pursuit as well as with being the spiritual father of the French New Wave Bazin at Work is the first English collection of disparate Bazin writings since the appearance of the second volume of What Is Cinema in 1971 It includes work from Cahiers le cinema which he founded and which is the most influential single critical periodical in the history of the cinema and Esprit He addresses filmmakers including Rossellini Eisenstein Pagnol and Capra and well known films including La Strada Citizen Kane Scarface and The Bridge on the River Kwai Heritage Signature Vintage Movie Poster Auction #636, 2006 Vente d'affiches de cinémas les 12 et 13 juillet 2006 Dallas Texas USA Hugo Friedhofer Linda Danly, 1999 In this paperbound reprint of a 1999 work Danly composer and film music historian tells the story of Hugo Friedhofer who began his career as a film composer at the start of the sound era and was a major contributor to the artistic development of this genre of music The chapters consist of an introduction by television producer and author Tony Thomas a portrait of Friedhofer by Danly an oral history drawn from an American Film Institute interview his correspondence with film music critic Page Cook a memoir by his friend music journalist Gene Lees and the memorial speech delivered by film composer David Raskin Several b/w photographs are included Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Psychoanalysis and Cinema E. Ann Kaplan, 2013-02-01 These fifteen carefully chosen essays by well known scholars demonstrate the vitality and variety of psychoanalytic film criticism as well as the crucial role feminist theory has played in its development Among the films discussed are Duel in the Sun The Best Years of Our Lives Three Faces of Eve Tender is the Night Pandora's Box Secrets of the Soul and the works of Jacques Tourneur director of The Cat People and other features The Best Years of Our Lives Sarah Kozloff, 2019-07-25 William Wyler's The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 tells the story of three veterans returning from World War II and adjusting to civilian life in a manner unusual for classical Hollywood cinema with melodrama leavened by authentic detail personal memories and a fierce desire to capture its historical moment Sarah Kozloff's illuminating study of the film traces the contribution of Wyler himself injured while serving in the US Air Force Robert Sherwood's screenplay Gregg Toland's deep focus cinematography Hugo Friedhofer's award winning score and the ensemble cast of Myrna Loy Fredric March Dana Andrews Teresa Wright and Harold Russell The film's poignant message spoke to American audiences reeling from the end of the conflict and the bumpy transition to peace producer Samuel Goldwyn received hundreds of letters from ex servicemen about how accurately his production had captured their experiences Despite winning nine Academy Awards Best Years was soon engulfed in political conflict from both the right and the left Disagreements about the film's politics foreshadowed

HUAC's anti Communist investigations and the fracturing of the Hollywood community that culminated in the collapse of the studio system Sarah Kozloff's discussion of the film's development production and reception history draws on archival research to shed new light on our understanding of this much loved movie and to bring The Best Years of Our Lives back where it belongs in our collections in our libraries and in our hearts The Great Movies III Roger Ebert, 2024-05-31 Roger Ebert has been writing film reviews for the Chicago Sun Times for over four decades now and his biweekly essays on great movies have been appearing there since 1996 As Ebert noted in the introduction to the first collection of those pieces They are not the greatest films of all time because all lists of great movies are a foolish attempt to codify works which must stand alone But it's fair to say If you want to take a tour of the landmarks of the first century of cinema start here Enter The Great Movies III Ebert's third collection of essays on the cr me de la cr me of the silver screen each one a model of critical appreciation and a blend of love and analysis that will send readers back to the films with a fresh set of eyes and renewed enthusiasm or maybe even lead to a first time viewing From The Godfather Part II to Groundhog Day from The Last Picture Show to Last Tango in Paris the hundred pieces gathered here display a welcome balance between the familiar and the esoteric spanning Hollywood blockbusters and hidden gems independent works and foreign language films alike Each essay draws on Ebert's vast knowledge of the cinema its fascinating history and its breadth of techniques introducing newcomers to some of the most exceptional movies ever made while revealing new insights to connoisseurs as well Named the most powerful pundit in America by Forbes magazine and a winner of the Pulitzer Prize Roger Ebert is inarguably the most prominent and influential authority on the cinema today The Great Movies III is sure to please his many fans and further enhance his reputation as America's most respected and trusted film critic The Good War's Greatest Hits Philip D. Beidler, 1998 The glow of 1945 persists as a kind of beacon for American society symbolic of an era when good and evil were easily defined This image is at the center of Philip D Beidler's entertaining look at the way World War II reshaped American popular culture The legend of the Good War was fostered by wartime propaganda and reinforced in the aftermath of victory through books the news media movies songs and television Beidler captures the aura of the times as he chronicles the production histories of more than a dozen projects with wartime themes examining how books and plays evolved into films how stars were considered and selected technical problems and personality conflicts during production and the public's reactions From the upbeat tempo of the musical South Pacific to the weary disillusionment of The Best Years of Our Lives from the patriotic nostalgia of Life's Picture History of World War II to the moral ambiguity of From Here to Eternity a powerful mythology of the war developed As a consequence the line between fact and fiction has blurred for the war generation and its inheritors and Hollywood's version of the Good War has become enshrined as historical fact in the nation's collective memory Male Subjectivity at the Margins Kaja Silverman, 2017-09-25 Through the examination of a range of literary and cinematic texts from William Wyler's classic The Best Years of Our Lives to the novels of Henry James Silverman
