The Later Middle Ages From The Norman Conquest To The Eve Of The Reformation:

The Later Middle Ages John Compton Dickinson, 1979 The Abbot and the Rule Michelle Still, 2017-03-02 St Albans was one of the greatest Benedictine abbeys of medieval England and the early 14th century was a period during which the concerns of the community and the role of the abbot emerge particularly clearly Yet the history of the abbey during this period has received little attention since general surveys undertaken over eighty years ago and the manorial history by Levett in 1938 Basing herself on the unique and relatively unexploited Gesta Abbatum Monasterii Sancti Albani Michelle Still examines the position of St Albans in both the secular and monastic worlds with a focus on the period 1290-1349 The study includes discussion of the role of the abbot as a feudal landlord a provider of education at the abbey's grammar school and a dispenser of charity In conclusion she notes the pivotal importance of the personality and influence of the abbot of St Albans in ensuring the strict observance of the Rule of St Benedict in an age when traditional monasticism was increasingly challenged Through the detailed study of this one abbey this book makes an important contribution to the overall picture of monastic life in medieval England The Medieval Church Joseph Lynch, 2013-12-16 The Church was the central institution of the European Middle Ages and the foundation of medieval life Professor Lynch's admirable survey concentrating on the western church and emphasising ideas and trends over personalities meets a long felt need for a single volume comprehensive history designed for students and non specialists Routledge Revivals: Medieval England (1998) Paul E. Szarmach, M. Teresa Tavormina, Joel T. Rosenthal, 2017-07-05 First published in 1998 this valuable reference work offers concise expert answers to questions on all aspects of life and culture in Medieval England including art architecture law literature kings women music commerce technology warfare and religion This wide ranging text encompasses English social cultural and political life from the Anglo Saxon invasions in the fifth century to the turn of the sixteenth century as well as its ties to the Celtic world of Wales Scotland and Ireland the French and Anglo Norman world of the Continent and the Viking and Scandinavian world of the North Sea A range of topics are discussed from Sedulius to Skelton from Wulfstan of York to Reginald Pecock from Pictish art to Gothic sculpture and from the Vikings to the Black Death A subject and name index makes it easy to locate information and bibliographies direct users to essential primary and secondary sources as well as key scholarship With more than 700 entries by over 300 international scholars this work provides a detailed portrait of the English Middle Ages and will be of great value to students and scholars studying Medieval history in England and Europe as well as non specialist readers The Convent and the Community in Late Medieval England Marilyn Oliva, 1998 Detailed study of female monasticism in the later middle ages with particular emphasis on the nuns importance to the local community Reformation in Britain and Ireland Felicity Heal, 2003 The study of the Reformation in England and Wales Ireland and Scotland has usually been treated by historians as a series of discrete national stories Reformation in Britain and Ireland draws upon the growing genre of writing about British History to construct an innovative narrative of religious change in the four countries three kingdoms The text uses a broadly chronological framework to consider the strengths and weaknesses of the pre Reformation churches the political crises of the break with Rome the development of Protestantism and changes in popular religious culture The tools of conversion the Bible preaching and catechising are accorded specific attention as is doctrinal change It is argued that political calculations did most to determine the success or failure of reformation though the ideological commitment of a clerical elite was also of central significance Plympton Priory Allison D. Fizzard,2008 A case study examining the history of a house of English Augustinian canons this book reveals the ways in which Plympton Priory formed connections with the laity the episcopacy the secular clergy and the Crown in the late Middle Ages The Church in Western Europe from the Tenth to the Early Twelfth Century Gerd Tellenbach,1993-03-25 This comprehensive survey of the history of the Church in Western Europe as institution and spiritual body Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland Quentin Outram,Keith Laybourn,2018-01-30 This edited collection examines the concept and nature of the people s martyrology raising issues of class community religion and authority It examines modern martyrdom through studies of Peterloo Tolpuddle Featherstone Tonypandy Emily Davison fatally injured by the King s horse on Derby Day 1913 the 1916 Easter Rising Jarrow the town that was murdered and martyred in the 1930s David Oluwale a Nigerian killed in Leeds in 1965 and Bobby Sands the IRA hunger striker who died in 1981 It engages with the burgeoning historiography of memory to try to understand why some events such as Peterloo Tonypandy and the Easter Rising have become household names whilst others most notably Featherstone and Oluwale are barely known It will appeal to those interested in British and Irish labour history as well as the study of memory and memorialization English Spirituality Gordon Mursell,2001-01-01 This wide ranging historical survey provides an indispensable resource for those interested in exploring teaching or studying English spirituality In two stand alone volumes it traces history from Roman times until the year 2000 The main Christian traditions and a vast range of writers and spiritual themes from Anglo Saxon poems to late modern feminist spirituality are included These volumes present the astonishing richness and variety of responses made by English Christians to the call of the divine during the past two thousand years
