of globalization Writing Travel in Central Asian History Nile Green,2014-01-02 For centuries travelers have made Central Asia known to the wider world through their writings In this volume scholars employ these little known texts in a wide range of Asian and European languages to trace how Central Asia was gradually absorbed into global affairs The representations of the region brought home to China and Japan India and Persia Russia and Great Britain provide valuable evidence that helps map earlier periods of globalization and cultural interaction The Bukharan Crisis Scott Levi,2020-05-26 In the first half of the eighteenth century Central Asia s Bukharan Khanate descended into a crisis from which it would not recover Bukharans suffered failed harvests and famine a severe fiscal downturn invasions from the north and the south rebellion and then revolution To date efforts to identify the cause of this crisis have focused on the assumption that the region became isolated from early modern globalizing trends The Bukharan Crisis exposes that explanation as a flawed relic of early Orientalist scholarship on the region In its place Scott Levi identifies multiple causal factors that underpinned the Bukharan crisis Some of these were interrelated and some independent some unfolded over long periods while others shocked the region more abruptly but they all converged in the early eighteenth century to the detriment of the Bukharan Khanate and those dependent upon it Levi applies an integrative framework of analysis that repositions Central Asia in recent scholarship on multiple themes in early modern Eurasian and world history The Naqshbandiyya Itzhak Weismann,2007-06-25 The Naqshbandiyya order has attracted increasing scholarly attention over the last two decades yet so far there has been no attempt to present a comprehensive picture of the evolution of the rich organization and ideational Naqshbandiyyah tradition This book is therefore by now a highly desirable contribution that will fill this gap in the literature of this important Sufi order Spanning almost a millennium in time and most of the Muslim world in space this book provides a comprehensive overview of the important Naqshbandiyyah Sufi order Islam, Literature and Society in Mongol Anatolia A. C. S. Peacock,2019-10-17 A new understanding of the transformation of Anatolia to a Muslim society in the thirteenth fourteenth centuries based on previously unpublished sources Regional Sufi Centres in India Nasir Raza Khan,2023-06-09 Regional Sufi Centres in India Significance and Contribution sets out to explore and understand the hundreds of years old multi religious sect of India Sufism which advocates humane and global outlook for entire mankind and regards humanity as a brotherhood Sufism came to India from its Arabic Turkic and Persian homes instead of remaining confined to palaces and mosques It spread out to all over India establishing regional Centres and Dargahs often known by the surnames of the families which sustained it like Khanqah e Niazia in Bareilly UP Khanqah Gesu Daraz in Gulbarga and Firdausi in Bihar The authors of this volume discuss some of the regional Sufi Centres in India and their contribution in the social emancipation of the society Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan Genealogical History in the Persianate World Jo-Ann Gross,Daniel Beben,2025-06-26 Scholarship on the Muslim world has recently begun to pay increased attention to non literary genres of documentation as sources for historical research Genealogical writings are one form of such documentation that has demonstrated significant potential for addressing a wide range of research concerns particularly for topics that receive little attention in historical chronicles and other state centered narrative sources However while genealogical documentation has received some attention in scholarship on the Arab world it remains mostly unstudied in scholarship on Persianate societies The chapters in this book offer reflections on theoretical and methodological issues concerning the study of genealogical documentation combined with case studies based primarily on previously unpublished unstudied source materials The topics explored span the full breadth of the Persianate world from Anatolia to the Ferghana Valley in Central Asia to the Gujarat region of India utilizing sources dating from the fourteenth to the twentieth century The book will be of significant interest to scholars and students of Islamic history and the Persianate ecumene as well as readers in other fields interested in comparative research demonstrating the use of genealogical documentation as historical sources
