Lambert St. Rose, 2016-10-13 A running theme in Father St Roses collection of poems is a simple but profound expression of the diversity in creation and its oneness in the Godhead Its a reminder of the need to promote and protect the integrity of all of creation because in the Godhead there are no accidents all of creation has value and purpose What Father St Rose has done in this collection is to place before the reader those everyday experiences we take for granted and a chance to see them in their totality because it is only then that we can appreciate the fuller value of the individual experiences Everistus Jn Marie Meditate upon the lines of the Our Father through a series of poems and be willingly crafted in the hands of God the master sculptor A former teacher and ever prolific the poet usefully dissects the Our Father delivering it to us in word and deed from a living perspective often in all too familiar contexts Nahdjla Bailey teacher author and editor This book is a phenomenally deep presentation of a vast cohesion of Jesus Christs divine teaching which should be our lifetime curriculum while on earth in order to help us reach our heavenly destination one day This book is a work of love Loyola Devaux teacher and editor
