The Bedside Of Colonial Doings:

The Bedside Book of Colonial Doings J. Henniker Heaton, 1984-01-01 Sports around the World John Nauright, 2012-04-06 This multivolume set is much more than a collection of essays on sports and sporting cultures from around the world it also details how and why sports are played wherever they exist and examines key charismatic athletes from around the world who have transcended their sports Sports Around the World History Culture and Practice provides a unique global overview of sports and sports cultures Unlike most works of this type this book provides both essays that examine general topics such as globalization and sport international relations and sport and tourism and sport as well as essays on sports history culture and practice in world regions for example Latin America and the Caribbean the Middle East and North Africa Europe and Oceania in order to provide a more global perspective These essays are followed by entries on specific sports world athletes stadiums and arenas famous games and matches and major controversies Spanning topics as varied as modern professional cycling to the fictional movie Rocky to the deadly ball game of the ancient Mayans the first three volumes contain overview essays and entries for specific sports that have been and are currently practiced around the world The fourth volume provides a compendium of information on the winners of major sporting competitions from around the world Readers will gain invaluable insights into how sports have been enjoyed throughout all of human culture and more fully comprehend their cultural contexts The entries provide suggestions for further reading on each topic helpful to general readers students with school projects university students and academics alike Additionally the four volume Sports Around the World spotlights key charismatic athletes who have changed a sport or become more than just an outstanding player The Bedside Book of Colonial Doings J. Henniker Heaton, 1986 Liberalism and Colonial Violence Hellena Moon, 2023-01-31 This book explores the aporias of liberal democracy freedom care and justice with the seemingly at odds ideas of neoliberal fascism racism sexism and other forms of violence As Derrick Bell and others have argued that racism is inherent in US democracy I examine the intertwined concepts of justice and freedom with fascist ideas that unsettle democratic practices of freedom and political equality There is ongoing tension that uproots democratic practices driven by the very ideals of democracy itself Freedom is acquired for one group while circumscribing it for others In analyzing the troubling neoliberal fascist leanings of our times I explore the origins of US liberalism to diagnose our current state of politico theological abyss In that regard our own field of pastoral care needs to address its complicity in the current devolving situation of the neoliberal fascist ideologies in US society Fascist and nationalist ideologies rely foremost on perpetuating mythic ideologies masking reality and controlling our epistemologies In charting a new genealogy for spiritual care I argue that the image of care as articulated by W E B DuBois one of Third World liberation that addresses the decoloniality of the entombed soul should be the primary genealogy of spiritual care for our field today Doing Anti-Oppressive Social Work, 4th ed. Donna Baines, Natalie Clark, Bindi Bennett, 2022-11-15T00:00:00Z Doing Anti Oppressive Social Work brings together critical social work authors to passionately engage with pressing social issues and to pose new solutions practices and analysis in the context of growing inequities and the need for reconciliation decolonization and far reaching change The book presents strong intersectional perspectives and practice engaging closely with decolonization re Indigenization resistance and social justice Like the first three editions the 4th edition foregrounds the voices of those less heard in social work academia and to provide cutting edge critical reflection and skills including social work s relationship to the state and social work s responsibility to individuals communities and its own ethics and standards of practice Indigenous Black racialized transgender dis Ability and allied scholars offer identity engaged and intersectional analyses on a wide range of issues facing those working with intersectional cultural humility racism and child welfare poverty and single mothers critical gerontology and older people and immigrant and racialized families This 4th edition of Doing Anti Oppressive Social Work goes well beyond its predecessors updating and revising popular chapters but also problematizing AOP and engaging closely with new and emerging issues

Dear William Judith Norton, Horace Norton, 1994 A Bushranging Bibliography, 1992 Doing Dignity Christa Teston, 2024-06-11 Explores human dignity and care in the face of disease and disability Complex contemporary experiences with disease death and disability in the United States have made the concept of human dignity seem outdated In Doing Dignity Ethical Praxis and the Politics of Care Christa Teston challenges conventional notions of dignity and based on analyses of clinical observations interviews and focus groups encourages a new understanding of care This thought provoking book presents a practice based approach to human dignity through three compelling case studies US health care professionals COVID 19 caretaking experiences legislative debates about medical aid in dying and clinical interactions between wheelchair users and health care professionals Teston demonstrates how dignity is not an abstract idea but rather is a set of practices embedded in the politics and complexities of care Drawing from feminist care ethics rhetorical theory disability studies and critical Black studies Doing Dignity offers a fresh perspective on the moral underpinnings of modern day medicine Teston explores how health care professionals enact dignity despite the challenges of market based medicine the commodification of care and shifting societal discourse on disease dying and disability This book transcends philosophical debates and provides practical insights for both patients and practitioners Without falling into sentimentality or hopelessness Doing Dignity honors human vulnerability while revealing how situational factors influence the practice of dignified care

Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Management, 2002 A Bibliography of Victorian History, 1850-1900 Guy Featherstone, 1986 The aim of this work is to provide a guide to those reference works bibliographies encyclopedias dictionaries and similar works which are likely to be useful to research workers in the field of Victorian history
