through shopping cart chaos teething potty training etc and lived to tell about it In this rejuvenating book she offers upbeat devotions for harried moms delivering the message that this stage too shall pass and then they ll miss it With humor and warmth Aldrich gently mentors moms in the art of nurturing their children and making the most of a season that can be crazy but also fleeting and precious Wasn t it just yesterday she writes I was in the thick of an endless round of zipping snowsuits buckling car seats wiping noses and bandaging knees For all the moms in that very situation Aldrich s tips experiences and true confessions will add some encouragement and fun and subtract a little frustration from their daily lives American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04 Giving and Receiving Hospitality [Daily Life] Martha Brunell,2010-10-16 The New Testament word for stranger is also translated as host and guest Hospitality is never a one way street but a circle or roundabout that gives and receives The one who invites and the one invited are each in turn host and guest This book is aimed at persons 18 and older who have a career or are students The book focuses on three contexts of daily life household and family individual and personal and workplace and community Practicing our faith is a lifelong process When completed this series will offer 24 practices in 10 different life settings This series can be used at any time or stage in your life Empowering People through Encounter Erin Brignam, Maureen H. O'Connell,2025-09-15 A useful and enriching resource for empowering organizers rooted in Catholic Social Thought to engage the church on all levels and mobilize Catholics and other people of faith to enact social change Empowering People through Encounter presents the Catholic Social Tradition as an embodied practical and inspiring way to connect faith and action It highlights the dispositions skills and methods of faith based community organizing through a combination of interviews with Catholic organizers in the field and case studies of campaigns from a variety of national contexts Focusing on the relational praxis of organizing provides an opportunity for readers to encounter Catholic Social Thought as an integrated vision that gets lived on the ground by those closest to the pain of injustices rather than a set of abstract principles invoked by those at a distance Students and practitioners of Catholic Social Thought in a variety of contexts from the classroom and the pulpit to the one to one meeting and the public action will appreciate the introduction to the concrete skills of community organizing to encounter the Catholic Social Tradition with particular emphasis on the social teachings and synodal vision of Pope Francis For those who use this resource within the context of a university classroom or parish Empowering People through Encounter will nourish faith formation and vocation development by presenting community organizing as an expression of Catholic Social Thought and a way people of faith have been architects of Catholicism Women and the Authority of Scripture Sarah Heaner Lancaster,2002-09-01 The theological impact of accepting the absolute authority of biblical scripture is enormous especially for women who attend and serve churches But until now few books have been willing to address this issue head on Sarah Lancaster looks at the way women in the church have dealt with the question of scriptural authority and how they can address it in the future Some women she says accept the authority of the Bible without question and stay in church without change of attitude or action Others deny that the Bible has any authority completely leaving Christianity in the belief that the Bible and Christian tradition are irredeemably patriarchal Still others recognize that while scripture is largely patriarchal it is authoritative for their life of faith The Bible possesses a narrative coherence its story resonating in our own lives For women the Bible can continue to ring true to their experience letting them acknowledge scripture s authority in spite of its problems The Bible is not about patriarchy it is about how God is present to us and interacts with us in order to bring us to fullness of life Lancaster says that women can criticize those things in scripture that help maintain a patriarchal world without invalidating scripture s authority Scripture she argues informs forms and transforms With its combination of narrative and feminist theology Women and the Authority of Scripture brings a powerful new perspective to the doctrine of biblical authority in the contemporary world Sarah Heaner Lancaster is Associate Professor of Theology Methodist Theological School in Delaware Ohio She is an ordained elder in the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church She lives in Westerville Ohio

When God Speaks through Change Craig A. Satterlee, 2005-03-01 At times a congregational transition looms so large in a sermon that it becomes the lens through which scripture is interpreted the congregation is addressed the preacher is heard and God is experienced Homiletics professor and parish pastor Craig Satterlee reflects in this accessible provocative volume about on how to integrate such significant events in a congregation s life into the preaching ministry of the church Rather than offering a blueprint for preaching however he walks along pastors seminarians and other congregational leaders who want to make sure the Gospel not an agenda is preached
