The Law Of Values:

The Law of Values Sepharial, 2007-03-01 This is one of the oddest books of financial advice ever written one that ascribes astrological import to the movement of dollars and assigns signs of the zodiac to countries England is apparently an Aries and France a Leo Here we learn that Saturn brings national depression due to political reversals and Mercury a sense of instability that the Boer War may have been triggered by Neptune the planet not the deity and that by learning how to read the stars the earthbound investor may prosper It remains unclear whether Sepharial who published this curious work in 1912 saw dark celestial clouds brewing for October 1929 Sepharial was the pseudonym of British mystic WALTER GORN OLD 1864 1929 one of the most prolific writers on and teachers of astrology in modern times and the first president of the British Astrological Society Among his more than 60 books are Astrology Explained Cosmic Symbolism Science of Foreknowledge and The Silver Key Natural Value Friedrich Freiherr von Wieser, 1893 The Elements of Economics Henry Dunning Macleod, 1899 The Value of Money B. M.. Anderson, 1922 Catholic Values and Australian Realities James Franklin, 2006 Australian Catholics have made a unique contribution to the nation At its centre is a solid grasp of the objectivity of ethics Persons or societies cannot choose their own values because what is right and wrong is founded in the way things are In his wide ranging book on Australian Catholic thought and action James Franklin author of the much praised polemical history of Australian philosophy Corrupting the Youth shows how core Catholic values have played out in the issues where Catholics have challenged their host society in debates on land rights immigration and values in schools and in combats with Freemasons Protestants and Communists The Home Encyclopædia , 1895 A Treatise on the Law of Insurance of Every Kind Joseph Asbury Joyce, 1917 Form and Function in a Legal System Robert S. Summers, 2005-11-14 This book addresses three major questions about law and legal systems 1 What are the defining and organising forms of legal institutions legal rules interpretative methodologies and other legal phenomena 2 How does frontal and systematic focus on these forms advance understanding of such phenomena 3 What credit should the functions of forms have when such phenomena serve policy and related purposes rule of law values and fundamental political values such as democracy liberty and justice This book seeks to offer general answers to these questions and thus gives form in the law its due The answers not only provide articulate conversancy with the subject but also reveal insights into the nature of law itself the oldest and foremost problem in legal theory and allied subjects A Treatise on the Law of Taxation as Imposed by the States and Their Municipalities William Henry Burroughs, 1877 The Rule of Law Cheryl Saunders, Katherine Le Roy, 2003 This book brings together the views of an extraordinary range of well known authors It contains essays by Chief Justice Murray Gleeson High Court of Australia Justice Louise Arbour Supreme Court of Canada Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Supreme Court of USA Dr Radhika Coomaraswamy the UN Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women and Professors Saunders Australia Dyzenhaus Canada and Troper France The essays cover issues such as the debate about the meaning and application of the rule of law the gaps between the theory and practice of the rule of law relations between governments and people the tensions between the judiciary and the elected branches of government international criminal justice and the position of women in situations of conflict and insurrection The analyses in the book draw on topical events ranging from the Florida appeal in the election of President Bush to the indictment of Slobodan Milosevic at the War Crimes Tribunal
