H. G. Wells John Batchelor, 1985-03-21 H G Wells wrote almost a hundred books yet he is generally remembered for only a handful of them He is known above all as a writer who heralded the future yet throughout his life he clung to fixed attitudes from the Victorian past He began his career as a draper's apprentice by the age of forty five he had secured an international reputation as the author of The Time Machine The War of the Worlds Kipps and Tono Bungay he went on to establish himself as an influential educator polemicist and sage In this book John Batchelor offers a readable introduction to Wells's huge and varied output as a writer and thinker He guides the reader through the whole oeuvre and argues persuasively that at his best Wells was a great artist a man with a remarkable restless imagination not limited as many critics have implied merely to his early romances and with a coherent and responsible theory of fiction
