Clay Tobacco Pipes and the Fur Trade of the Pacific Northwest and Northern Plains Michael A. Pfeiffer, 2006-12 Clay tobacco pipes are a unique form of artifact that has been recovered from the earliest colonial period sites to those of the early twentieth century Archaeologists have found this artifact category useful for interpretive purposes due to their rapid technological and typological change decoration and maker s marks Lack of adequate reporting in older site reports precludes a wide range of interpretive values intrinsic to this artifact category A detailed study of tobacco pipe assemblages from the Pacific Northwest and Northern Plains in an 1800 to 1890s time frame demonstrates the interpretive value of this category on an intrasite regional and interregional basis The detailed analysis given the pipes and pipe assemblages provides a historical background that encompasses the artifacts the manufacturers the sites the relationships of the sites and their place in the development of these regions These tobacco pipes reflect the marketing and trade histories of these regions as well as many of the cultural subgroups Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one s funeral or memorial occasion The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors and hospice hospital and funeral professionals Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author title and first line A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film novel or celebrity s funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context
