Songhay Benin Burkina Faso Mali Niger:

The Sociolinguistics of Development in Africa Paulin G. Djité, 2008 This book is an analysis of modernisation informed by the place of language in education health the economy and governance in the African context It paints a wide canvas of Africa in its different facets and shows how language is used as an instrument to deny access to socioeconomic and political emancipation

Language and Development in Africa H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2016-05-26 Development is based on communication through language With more than two thousand languages being used in Africa language becomes a highly relevant factor in all sectors of political social cultural and economic life This important sociolinguistic dimension hitherto remains underrated and under researched in Western mainstream development studies The book discusses the resourcefulness of languages both local and global in view of the ongoing transformation of African societies as much as for economic development From a novel applied African sociolinguistics perspective it analyses the continuing effects of linguistic imperialism on postcolonial African societies in particular regarding the educational sector through imposed hegemonic languages such as Arabic and the ex colonial languages of European provenance It offers a broad interdisciplinary scientific approach to the linguistic dimensions of sociocultural modernisation and economic development in Africa written for both the non linguistically trained reader as much as for the linguistically trained researcher and language practitioner

International Encyclopedia of Linguistics William Frawley, 2003-05 The International Encyclopedia of Linguistics 2nd Edition encompasses the full range of the contemporary field of linguistics including historical comparative formal mathematical functional and philosophical linguistics with special attention given to interrelations within branches of linguistics and to relations of linguistics with other disciplines Areas of intersection with the social and behavioral sciences ethnolinguistics sociolinguistics psycholinguistics and behavioral linguistics receive major coverage along with interdisciplinary work in language and literature mathematical linguistics computational linguistics and applied linguistics Longer entries in the International Encyclopedia of Linguistics ranging up to four thousand words survey the major fields of study for example anthropological linguistics history of linguistics semantics and phonetics Shorter entries treat specific topics within these fields such as code switching sound symbolism and syntactic features Other short entries define and discuss technical terms used within the various subfields or provide sketches of the careers of important scholars in the history of linguistics such as Leonard Bloomfield Roman Jakobson and Edward Sapir A major portion of the work is its extensive coverage of languages and language families From those as familiar as English Japanese and the Romance languages to Hittite Yoruba and Nahuatl all corners of the world receive treatment Languages that are the subject of independent entries are analyzed in terms of their phonology grammatical features syntax and writing systems Lists attached to each article on a language group or family enumerate all languages extinct or still spoken within that group and provide detailed information on the number of known speakers geographical range and degree of intelligibility with other languages in the group In this way virtually every known language receives coverage For ease of reference and to aid research the articles are alphabetically arranged each signed by the contributor supported by up to date bibliographies line drawings maps tables and diagrams and readily accessible via a system of cross references and a detailed index and synoptic outline Authoritative comprehensive and innovative the 2nd edition of the International Encyclopedia of Linguistics will be an indispensable addition to personal public academic and research libraries and will introduce a new generation of readers to the complexities and concerns of this field of study

Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East John A.

Shoup,2011-10-17 This encyclopedia is an essential guide to the different ethno linguistic groups in Africa and today s complicated Middle East region Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East contains encyclopedic entries arranged alphabetically within ethno linguistic classifications Each entry has four main sections an introduction identifying the language group where they are found and their numbers a brief discussion of their origins and early history a section on cultural life that includes religion literature social organization and art and a final section on political organization and recent history The contents are appropriate for high school and undergraduate students as well as for experts who need a refresher on groups in Africa and the Middle East While certain ethnic groups have been combined into a single entry some such as the Tuareg who are a Berber people are described within their own entries because of their importance in history or cultural domination making in the development process without equal opportunities to secure a better quality of life. One further danger may lie in regarding ethnicities as fixed rather than as the potentially fluid phenomena that they often are. Situational ethnicity does occur and individuals and groups do modify their self-identifications depending on circumstances. Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples' rights has changed over time. MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self-identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples. At the same time, after over 50 years of work, we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers. Therefore, we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues.

The Oxford Handbook of African Languages Rainer Vossen, Gerrit Jan Dimmendaal, 2020. This book provides a comprehensive overview of current research in African languages, drawing on insights from anthropological linguistics, typology, historical and comparative linguistics, and sociolinguistics. It covers a wide range of topics from grammatical sketches of individual languages to sociocultural and extralinguistic issues.

The Baobabs: Pachycauls of Africa, Madagascar and Australia G.E. Wickens, 2008-03-02. This is the only comprehensive account of all eight species in the genus Adansonia. It describes the historical background from the late Roman period to the present. It covers the extraordinary variety of economic uses of baobabs. There are also appendices on vernacular names, gazetteer, economics, nutrition, and forest mensuration. This book fills a gap in the botanical literature. It deals with a genus that has fascinated and intrigued scientists and lay persons for centuries.

Encyclopedia of the World's Minorities Carl Skutsch, 2013-11-07. This study of minorities involves the difficult issues of rights, justice, equality, dignity, identity, autonomy, political liberties, and cultural freedoms. The A-Z Encyclopedia presents the facts, arguments, and areas of contention in over 560 entries in a clear, objective manner. For a full list of entries, contributors, and more, visit the Encyclopedia of the World's Minorities website.

African Ethnonyms Daniel P. Biebuyck, Susan Kelliher, Linda McRae, 1996. A reference of some 2,500 names of specific African ethnic groups. Emphasis is on the art of sub-Saharan Africa, with art broadly interpreted to include ornamental design, architecture, textiles, and body adornment, as well as the traditional arts of masks and sculpture. Organized alphabetically, entries list countries where groups are located and language name. A secondary index lists groups by country and provides notes on historical, colonial, occupation, languages, and print resources. For librarians, museum scholars, and researchers in art, history, anthropology, linguistics, and African studies. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc, Portland, OR.

Historical Dictionary of Niger Abdourahmane Idrissa, Samuel Decalo, 2012-06-01. The fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of Niger covers the history of the peoples of the Republic of Niger from medieval times to the present. This is done through a chronology, an introductory essay, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 700 cross-referenced entries covering elements of pre-colonial and colonial history, recent politics, cinema, literature, religion, economics, and finance. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Niger.

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Songhay Benin Burkina Faso Mali Niger : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
