The Art of Growing Older Wayne C. Booth, 1996-12-15 Culled chiefly from great literary works this unusual compendium of prose and poetry excerpts highlights the physical and emotional aspects of aging Although Booth The Rhetoric of Fiction age 71 includes such cheery banal verse as I Haven't Lost My Marbles Yet Minnie Hodapp he has tailored this collection to encompass the unpleasant truths about aging William Butler Yeats's Sailing to Byzantium and excerpts from Simone de Beauvoir's The Coming of Age offer realistic assessments of the perils and possible consolations of aging The thoughtful commentary with which Booth connects the selections reminds readers that physical decay and fear of death are conditions common to us all This provocative collection braces rather than comforts

Social Cognition and Aging Thomas M. Hess, Fredda Blanchard-Fields, 1999-06-18 Most of the research done in social cognition has been conducted with younger adults and may not be applicable to a much older population Social Cognition and Aging provides a snapshot view of research that has been done with older adults or is directly applicable to this population. Focusing on issues of self identity, social interactions and social perceptions, this book provides a broad overview of how aging affects one's own perceptions and actions as well as how others perceive and interact with the aged. Coverage includes such topics as self control, memory, resilience, age stereotypes, moral development and the art of living. With contributions from top researchers in both gerontology and psychology, this book is an important reference for academics and professionals alike in personality, cognition, social psychology, adult development, sociology and gerontology.

Aging, Biotechnology, and the Future Catherine Y. Read, Robert C. Green, Michael A. Smyer, 2008-06-16 This wide ranging multidisciplinary collection examines how advances in medicine and technology are affecting the aging process and the lives of elderly persons. In analyzing the state of biotechnology, these essays applaud the positive extended longevity and the potential for greater quality of life while probing such ethical quandaries as presymptomatic genetic testing, therapeutic cloning, antiaging technologies and the transhumanist movement. The volume includes discussions about the respective roles of health care professionals, government and individuals in shaping a workable regulatory framework and unifying multiple perspectives to make the biotechnology revolution beneficial to all. Featuring contributions from renowned scholars of religion, ethics, philosophy, psychology, law, medicine and nursing and gerontology, Aging, Biotechnology, and the Future illuminates the promises and perils of growing old in the biomedical age.

Contributors: George J. Annas, Jessica Brommelhoff, Lisa Sowle Cahill, Margaret Gatz, Pamela J. Grace, Robert C. Green, Fernando A. Guerra, Rose M. Harvey, Kathy J. Horvath, Ann C. Hurley, Robert Lanza, Karen Lebacqz, Erin Linnenbringer, Maxwell J. Mehlman, Toni P. Miles, Sarah Moses, Thomas T. Perls, Leonard W. Poon, Catherine Y. Read, J. Scott Roberts, Diane Scott, Jones Thomas, A. Shannon, Richard L. Sprott, Rosemarie Tong, Laurie Zoloth.

Aging and Identity Sara M. Deats, Lagretta Lenker, 1999-04-30 Viewing artistic works through the lens of both contemporary gerontological theory and postmodernist concepts, the contributing scholars examine literary treatments, cinematic depictions and artistic portraits of aging from Shakespeare to Hemingway, from Horton Foote to Disney, from Rembrandt to Alice Neale, while also comparing the attitudes toward aging in Native American, African American and Anglo American literature. The examples demonstrate that long before gerontologists endorsed a Janus faced model of aging, artists were celebrating the diversity of the elderly, challenging the bio medical equation of senescence with inevitable senility. Underlying all of this discussion is the firm conviction that cultural texts construct as well as encode the conventional perceptions of their society; that literature, the arts and the media not only mirror society's mores but can also help to create and enforce them.

Aging and Demographic Change in Canadian Context David J. Cheal, Professor of Department of Sociology, David Cheal, 2002-01-01 Contributors question whether an aging society is necessarily inferior or problematic compared with the recent past, cautioning that exaggerated concerns about population aging can be harmful to rational policy making.

Worlds of Difference Eleanor Palo Stoller, Rose Campbell Gibson, 2000 This collection of readings presents a variety of perspectives on ageing from different communities across the United States Native American Puerto Rican African American the elderly homeless white working class gay and Mexican amongst many others The readings cover topics such as life course social and psychological contexts of ageing paid and unpaid activity the American family and health

Families in Later Life Alexis Walker, 2001-01-22 The introductory essays and readings drawn from both literature and social science research vividly illustrate the diversity of aging experiences both within and across American families diversity conditioned by social space historical time and individual biography Eleanor Palo Stoller Selah Chamberlain Professor of Sociology Case Western Reserve University Families in Later Life is the only textbook on the subject that addresses the diversity of aging experiences in society by race gender and social class and in a form which combines insight from the humanities as well as the social sciences Includes a balance between empirical selections and literary pieces keeping students interested and engaged while still introducing them to solid research Every social science article included has been carefully edited so those students learn and enjoy their reading to the maximum extent possible Framing Essays by the Editors Questions for Discussion and a complete Index make this book even more useful for teaching Autumn Gospel Kathleen Fischer, Kathleen R. Fischer, 1995 With her characteristic honesty gentleness and insight Kathleen Fischer explores the spiritual dimensions of women's middle and later years as she weaves together stories experiences and research from a variety of traditions and cultures She begins with a discussion of how societal images of older women constrict their sense of worth and their possibilities The author then suggests ways in which older women can embrace new visions of themselves She proceeds to explore the place of transitions the inner life contemplation the body mourning remembering caregiving and intergenerational connections as each relates to women's spirituality in later life At each chapter's end Dr Fischer offers rituals prayers and meditations that mark the passages of the second half of life Songs of Experience Margaret

Fowler, Priscilla McCutcheon, 1991 The subject of old age has inspired many eminent writers to produce some of their most brilliant and personal work This extraordinarily rich and moving anthology brings together the finest writing in a variety of forms on the experience of men and women in the final years of their lives Among the many treasures collected in SONGS OF EXPERIENCE are works by E B White Helen Hayes Colette William Carlos Williams W B Yeats May Sarton and others This superb collection is destined to become an enduring classic as illuminating to the young as it is reassuring to the old

Human Development Grace J. Craig, Don Baucum, 1999 Designed for students from a wide range of backgrounds this text takes a chronological and interdisciplinary approach to human development With its focus on context and culture the 8 E illustrates that the status of human development is inextricably embedded in a study of complex and changing cultures

Clickety Clack Joy S. McDiarmid, 2010-01-26 To many Joy McDiarmid was a successful Winnipeg writer and public relations consultant In truth she was leading a complex double life Behind an outer mask of accomplishment she battled in the twilight zones of mental health sexual identity and imprecise gender Social Integration in the Second Half of Life

Karl Pillemer, Phyllis Moen, Elaine Wethington, Nina Glasgow, 2003-05-01 Social scientists use the term social integration to refer to individuals' connections with others in their environments. The concept and its consequences have been the subject of considerable study. Many researchers have asserted that meaningful and enduring ties to other persons serve as a buffer against stress and thereby promote physical and mental health. The results are especially pronounced for older persons. Social Integration in the Second Half of Life presents integrative reviews of theory and research on this topic. The editors and contributors all currently or previously affiliated with the Cornell Gerontology Research Institute also present new empirical findings of research done at their center. The first section of the book discusses basic theory and principles of social integration in later life and its implications for health. The second largest section examines specific issues: retirement, driving, family support, housing, neighbors. The third section addresses interventions to promote social integration: transportation, volunteering, and peer support for dementia caregivers. Throughout, the authors focus on the diverging influences of social integration and its converse, social isolation in later life.

Bioethics and the Character of Human Life

Gilbert Meilaender, 2020-05-18 In the essays collected here, Gilbert Meilaender invites readers to reflect upon some of the bioethical issues that are important for all of us. The essays treat bioethics less as a discipline confined to a few experts than as a deeply humanistic set of concerns that inevitably draws us into religious and metaphysical issues. From reflections on his experience as a member of the President's Council on Bioethics to the way in which Christian trinitarian teaching has shaped what it means to be a person from life's beginning to its ending, these essays offer readers a chance to think about matters of fundamental human significance.

The Nursing Home Decision

Lawrence M. Martin, 1999-08-01 Easing the Way to a New Stage in Life. Placing a loved one in a nursing home is a difficult thing to face. In addition to choosing a home, figuring out finances, and dealing with the actual moving, you may also be struggling with deeper conflicts. The emotions you may feel of guilt, sadness, anger, and even relief are never predictable and can sometimes cause confusion. This invaluable book helps to ease this process, opening the channels of communication for all concerned. By examining the experience of nursing home care from all perspectives, including those of families, caregivers, and the residents themselves, everyone can learn to cope with this new situation. The Nursing Home Decision offers effective advice and empathic reassurance for managing one of life's most difficult transitions, allowing everyone to learn and grow from this new experience.

Christian Dying

George Kalantzis, Matthew Levering, 2018-07-24 We human beings are mortal. Our lives in this world inevitably terminate in death. This reality, however, need not cause us to despair, since Jesus Christ has gone before us into the far country of death, giving us hope that this defining feature of our earthly lives is not the end but instead is an entrance into Christ's presence and a path to the fullness of the Spirit's new creation in which God will be all in all. Christian Dying: Witnesses from the Tradition is a collection of essays containing reflections from Christian authors, whether Catholic, Orthodox, or Protestant, on the meaning and appropriation of Christian hope in the face of death, in conversation with a number of great voices from the Christian tradition CONTRIBUTORS Michel Rene Barnes John C Cavadini Marc Cortez Brian E Daley S J Paul L Gavrilyuk Matthew Levering David Luy Mark McIntosh Gilbert Meilaender Cyril O Regan Marcus Plested Brent Waters From Age-ing to Sage-ing Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, Ronald S. Miller, 2008-12-02 Medical science has added years to our lives Reb Zalman's warm and wise book arrives just in time to add life to those years Rabbi Harold Kushner national bestselling author of When Bad Things Happen to Good People Over two decades ago Rabbi Zalman Schachter Shalomi felt an uneasiness He was growing older and fears about death and infirmity were haunting him So he embarked on mission to get to the bottom of his fears Through a series of events that included a vision quest in a secluded cabin and studying with Sufi masters Buddhist teachers and Native American shamans Reb Zalman found a way to turn aging into the most meaningful and joyous time in his life In this inspiring guide Reb Zalman shares his wisdom with readers Using scientific research both neurological and psychological Reb Zalman offers techniques that will expand horizons beyond the narrow view of the present into a grand and enduring eternity By harnessing the power of the spirit as well as explaining exactly how to become a sage in their own community he gives readers a helpful way to use their own experiences to nurture heal and perhaps even save a younger generation from the prison of how we typically regard aging In this updated version Reb Zalman has added a brand new introductory chapter that provides insight into the shifts that have taken place in our culture since the first edition of this book came out in the 1990s He provides new inspiring ideas about the importance of an elder's role in shaping society As in his teaching Rabbi Zalman Schachter Shalomi put in this volume much warmth human compassion and necessary wisdom Elie Wiesel winner of the Nobel Peace Prize Literature and Gerontology Robert E.
