Sorraya In A Coma:

Sorraya in a Coma Esmail Fassih, Ismā'īl Faṣīḥ, 1985      Sorraya in a Coma Ismā'īl Faṣīḥ, 1985      Sorraya in a coma Ismā'īl Faṣīḥ, 1985      Sorraya in a coma Esmail Fassih, Ismā'īl Faṣīḥ, 1990      Strange Times, My Dear Nahid Mozaffari, Ahmad Karimi-Hakkak, 2012-01-13

When Arcade Publishing originally contracted this extraordinary collection of poetry and literature the Department of the Treasury was attempting to censor the publication of works from countries on America's enemies list. Arcade along with the PEN American Center, the Association of American Publishers Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division and the Association of American University Presses filed a lawsuit in federal court against the United States government. Their landmark case forced the Office of Foreign Assets Control to change their regulations regarding editing and publishing literature in translation and Arcade is proud to reissue this anthology that showcases the developments in Iranian literature over the past quarter century. Since the Iranian revolution of 1979 the United States has been virtually cut off from that country's culture. Despite severe difficulties imposed by social, political and economic upheavals as well as war repression and censorship a veritable cultural renewal has taken place in Iran over the past quarter century not only in literature but in music, art and cinema. Over forty writers from three generations contributed to this rich and varied collection or to use the Persian term golchine a bouquet, one that provides a much needed window into a largely undiscovered branch of world literature. In the wake of the Green Revolution and sweeping changes in the region this particular golchine is more relevant than ever and will bring literary enjoyment as well as a fuller understanding of a complex and ever shifting culture.

Muslim Diaspora Haideh Moghissi, 2007-01-24 This book charts the experiences of the Islamic diaspora around the world. It incorporates a broad range of case studies and includes issues such as identity, religious background and gender.

Iranian Refugees in Transit Maral Jefroudi, 2024-07-25 Maral Jefroudi presents a comprehensive picture of one of the largest migration waves in contemporary history by analyzing refugees' interactions with the Turkish State, the UNHCR and within the community of Iranians in transit after the 1979 revolution. Iranian Refugees in Transit unveils the rich history of political engagement among Iranian refugees before their arrival in Turkey, contextualised within Turkey's own landscape of political and ethnic conflicts. Jefroudi expertly examines the intersectional distribution of precarity among refugees. By bringing together interviews with refugees from the period, analyzing cultural products by and on them and tracing their footsteps in newspapers and scholarly literature, this book fills a significant gap in Turkey's migration history. Through a critical historical analysis of the international asylum system, Iranian Refugees in Transit offers valuable insights into the dynamics of the current refugee crisis.

In a Persian Mirror M. R. Ghanoonparvar, 2010-07-05 The extreme anti-Western actions and attitudes of Iranians in the 1980s astonished and dismayed the West, which has characterized the Iranian positions as irrational and inexplicable. In this groundbreaking study of images of the West in Iranian literature, however, M. R. Ghanoonparvar reveals that these attitudes did not develop suddenly or inexplicably but rather evolved over more than two centuries of Persian Western contact Notable among the authors whose works Ghanoonparvar discusses are Sadeq Hedayat M A Jamalzadeh Hushang Golshiri Gholamhoseyn Sa'edi Simin Daneshvar Moniru Ravanipur Sadeq Chubak and Jalal Al-e Ahmad This survey significantly illuminates the sources of Iranian attitudes toward the West and offers many surprising discoveries for Western readers not least of which is the fact that Iranians have often found Westerners to be as enigmatic and incomprehensible as we have believed them to be Global/Local Rob Wilson, Wimal Dissanayake, 1996-05-27 This groundbreaking collection focuses on what may be for cultural studies the most intriguing aspect of contemporary globalization the ways in which the postnational restructuring of the world in an era of transnational capitalism has altered how we must think about cultural production Mapping a new world space that is simultaneously more globalized and localized than before these essays examine the dynamic between the movement of capital images and technologies without regard to national borders and the tendency toward fragmentation of the world into increasingly contentious enclaves of difference ethnicity and resistance Ranging across issues involving film literature and theory as well as history politics economics sociology and anthropology these deeply interdisciplinary essays explore the interwoven forces of globalism and localism in a variety of cultural settings with a particular emphasis on the Asia Pacific region Powerful readings of the new image culture transnational film genre and the politics of spectacle are offered as is a critique of globalization as the latest guise of colonization Articles that unravel the complex links between the global and local in terms of the unfolding narrative of capital are joined by work that illuminates phenomena as diverse as yellow cab interracial sex in Japan machinic desire in Robocop movies and the Pacific Rim city An interview with Fredric Jameson by Paik Nak Chung on globalization and Pacific Rim responses is also featured as is a critical afterword by Paul Bov Positioned at the crossroads of an altered global terrain this volume the first of its kind analyzes the evolving transnational imaginary the full scope of contemporary cultural production by which national identities of political allegiance and economic regulation are being undone and in which imagined communities are being reshaped at both the global and local levels of everyday existence Orientalism Versus Occidentalism Laetitia Nanquette, 2017-02-28 This book highlights the role of cultural representations and perceptions such as when Iran is represented in the French media as a rogue state obsessed with its nuclear programme and when France is portrayed in the Iranian media as a decadent and imperialist country Here Laetitia Nanquette examines the functions processes and mechanisms of stereotyping and imagining the other that have pervaded the literary traditions of France and Iran when writing about each other She furthermore analyzes Franco Iranian relations by exploring the literary traditions of this relationship the ways in which these have affected individual authors and how they reflect socio political realities With themes that feed into popular debates about the nature of Orientalism and Occidentalism and how the two interact this book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those working on the cultures of the Middle East The A to Z of Iran John H.
