recognized for the depth and breadth of his learning in the philosophical disciplines as well as in the study of God earning him the titles Doctor universalis and Doctor expertus Moreover his authoritative teaching merited him the moniker Magnus an appellation bestowed on no other man of the High Middle Ages This volume contains the second half of Albert the Great's commentary On Job on chs 22-42 translated into English for the first time a translation of the first half of the work appeared in an earlier volume of the Fathers of the Church Mediaeval Continuation series vol 19 2019 Albert completed Super Iob in 1272 or 1274 when he was over seventy years old at the Dominican Kloster of Heilige Kreuz in Cologne where as lector emeritus of the Order he likely lectured on this profound biblical book Significantly Albert may have been inspired to produce On Job by his most famous student Thomas Aquinas who had written his own Joban commentary the Expositio super Iob ad litteram while serving as conventual lector at San Domenico in Orvieto from 1261 to 1264 Yet Albert occupies a unique position in the history of the interpretation of Job he is the first and only exegete in history who explicitly reads the whole book as a debate in the mode of an academic or scholastic disputation among Job and his friends about divine providence concerning human affairs Albert understands God in the final chapters of Job to determine the disputed question in favor of Job and against his friends namely declaring that He i e God rules human life with no consideration of human works but rather that divine governance is dissimilar to every mode of human rule     The Ascended Masters on Soul Mates and Twin Flames Mark L.
