people on Earth can use but it won't include the broad spectrum of spiritual mastery like levitation and invisibility. I'll only teach what I think you can actually use. Very few people need levitation. You might find it amusing but the problem is eventually you fall asleep, float up into space and suffocate. What good is that? The Wheels of Soul in Education, 2010-01-01. This book boldly re-frames the basis of our collective approach to education. It presents a compelling argument for an educational world view that perceives self, society and the universe as an undivided whole, a holarchy of wholes within wholes, wheels within wheels. Soul in education is an international movement rooted in the holistic education paradigm. It challenges us individually and collectively to re-ensoul our educational thinking and practice from the inside out. At the heart of this educational world view is an appreciation of the spiritual presence of the soul as the source self that exists beyond the surface appearance of personality and infuses an individual with positive transformative qualities that energise lifelong learning and creative living. The essays in this book describe practices that attend to the cultivation of the soul in a range of educational contexts. Written by holistic educators from around the globe, they build a picture of education that develops a multidimensional understanding of self and other. Through creativity, paradox and mystery, teachers invite the emergence of soul qualities in themselves and learners, qualities such as joy, justice, caring, ethics, compassion and tolerance, providing the vital basis for the creation of a more equitable social reality in the 21st century and beyond.

Radical Wisdom. Beverly Lanzetta. Lanzetta illuminates the transformative potential of the classical tradition of women mystics, especially in light of contemporary violence against women around the world. Focusing on the contemplative process as women's journey from oppression to liberation, Lanzetta draws especially on the mysticism of Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila. She lays out the contemplative techniques used by mystics to achieve their highest spiritual potential and also investigates how unjust social and political conditions afflict women's souls. Lanzetta identifies a specific historical female mystical path, the via feminina, and draws contemporary conclusions for how women might understand their bodies, their rights and their ethics.

Over the years he worked with many people and discovered the importance of karma that we have lessons to learn and if we do not do so in one lifetime we will encounter them in another lifetime. Other people are instrumental in our learning these karmic lessons and we can be tied to certain individuals in life after life. In this book, Sutphen shares regressions with several clients and includes transcripts of their sessions. In hearing their stories, we discover what these people came to understand about the challenges in their
