Kinnaman, 2003-11-03 Gary Kinnaman contends that many Christians are blinded by what he calls popular and nonbiblical notions of God Applying personal anecdotes stories from the lives of others and a large dose of humor the author challenges ten beliefs that are obstacles to the experience of God's love and providence With a lighthearted touch the author rescues readers from stubborn religious lies such as God grades on a curve the better you are the bigger the blessing And whoppers such as if God leads you to something everything will work out just great Witty and engaging Kinnaman may offend Christians of all traditions as he provokes them to think more deeply about their faith and their behavior
