Space Between The Notes Rock And The Counter Culture:

Space Between the Notes Sheila Whiteley, 1992 Counterculture Kaleidoscope Nadya Zimmerman, 2010-02-11 A bold reconsideration of the meaning of 1960s San Francisco counterculture The Place of Music Andrew Leyshon, David Matless, George Revill, 1998-03-21 Music is omnipresent in human society but its language can no longer be regarded as transcendent or universal Like other art forms music is produced and consumed within complex economic cultural and political frameworks in different places and at different historical moments Taking an explicitly spatial approach this unique interdisciplinary text explores the role played by music in the formation and articulation of geographical imaginations local regional national and global Contributors show how music's facility to be recorded stored and broadcast to be performed and received in private and public and to rouse intense emotional responses for individuals and groups make it a key force in the definition of a place Covering rich and varied terrain from Victorian England to 1960s Los Angeles to the offices of Sony and Time Warner and the landscapes of the American Depression the volume addresses such topics as the evolution of musical genres the globalization of music production and marketing alternative and hybridized music scenes as sites of localized resistance the nature of soundscapes and issues of migration and national identity The Routledge Handbook of Pink Floyd Chris Hart, Simon A. Morrison, 2022-09-20 The Routledge Handbook of Pink Floyd is intended for scholars and researchers of popular music as well as music industry professionals and fans of the band It brings together international researchers to assess evaluate and reformulate approaches to the critical study and interpretation of one of the world's most important and successful bands For the first time this Handbook will tear down the wall examining the band's collective artistic creations and the influence of social technological commercial and political environments over several decades on their work Divided into five parts the book provides a thoroughly contextualised overview of the musical works of Pink Floyd including coverage of performance and sound media reception and fandom genre periods of Pink Floyd's work and aesthetics and subjectivity Drawing on art design performance culture and counterculture emergent theoretical resources and analytical frames are evaluated and discussed from across the social sciences humanities and creative arts The Handbook is intended for scholars and researchers of popular music as well as music industry professionals It will appeal across a range of related subjects from music production to cultural studies and media communication studies Music and History Stanley C. Pelkey, 2005 This book begins with a simple question Why haven't historians and musicologists been talking to one another Historians frequently look to all aspects of human activity including music in order to better understand the past Musicologists inquire into the social cultural and historical contexts of musical works and musical practices to develop theories about the meanings of compositions and the significance of musical creation Both disciplines examine how people represent their experiences This collection of original essays the first of its kind argues that the conversation between scholars in the two fields can become richer and more mutually informing The volume features an eloquent personal essay by historian Lawrence W Levine whose work has inspired a whole generation of scholars working on African American music in American history The first six essays address widely different aspects of musical culture and history ranging from women and popular song during the French Revolution to nineteenth century music publishing in Philadelphia Pennsylvania Two additional essays by scholars outside of musicology and history represent a new kind of disciplinary bridging by using the methods of cultural studies to look at cross dressing in nineteenth and early twentieth century opera and blues responses to lynching in the New South The last four essays offer models for collaborative multidisciplinary research with a special emphasis on popular music Jeffrey H Jackson Memphis Tennessee is assistant professor of history at Rhodes College He is the author of Making Jazz French Music and Modern Life in Interwar Paris Stanley C Pelkey Portage Michigan is assistant professor of music at Western Michigan University He is a member of the College Music Society and his work has appeared in music related periodicals
