The Beatles Yesterday And Today

The very first issues of the album "Yesterday and Today" released on June 15, 1966 featured a very controversial cover photo, showing the Beatles dressed in butcher smocks with doll parts and cuts of raw meat strewn about them. The photo was considered "offensive" by most observers and Capitol Records deemed the cover "unmarketable" due to a "misrepresentation of pop art satire". These albums were quickly recalled by Capitol and the covers were either destroyed or pasted over with a replacement. Only a few like the one featured escaped the factory in the original "first state" condition. Today, the LP continues to escalate in interest and value. A near mint stereo copy is worth $2000 - double the value of just 3 years ago!
