The Beloved Reflections On The Path Of The Heart:

The Beloved Kahlil Gibran, 2014-11-27 Kahlil Gibran writes beautifully about love marriage and the union of souls adding a new dimension to our understanding of the philosophy of love and its role in contemporary society The Beloved Kahlil Gibran, 1994 Exquisite writings on love marriage and the spiritual union of souls add a fresh dimension to our understanding of the philosophy of love and the transformation of one's life through its all encompassing power Gavur a journey to belong Hale Adasal, 2011-12-16 In search of her ancestry one woman embarks on an epic journey travelling back more than 5000 years to the ancient Altai Mountains where she discovers not only her history Adult Education and the Pursuit of Wisdom Elizabeth J. Tisdell, Ann L. Swartz, 2011-10-13 Delve into the nature and mystery of wisdom in adult education and what it might mean for the practice of adult education in the complexity of changing times This issue begins with a look at the nature of wisdom the wisdom of nature and how it relates to current issues in the field of adult education It then looks to neuroscience and the evolution of sacred knowing to explore the connection between learning and wisdom Covering transcendent and practical wisdom the issue then draws on Eastern Western and Mideastern cultural and religious perspectives to develop a fuller understanding of wisdom Finally it covers the aspects of gender and or culture in relation to wisdom though in quite different ways This is the 131st volume of the Jossey Bass higher education quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education Noted for its depth of coverage this indispensable series explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of adult and continuing education settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void
