Jakubowski, 2005 A Darker Shade of Blue John Harvey, 2013-01-02 A master of the craft, John Harvey lights out one of the best. Michael Connelly. John Harvey has been described as the master of British crime fiction. From the mean streets of London to the jazz clubs and clip joints of Soho, this is a world of broken families, revenge killings and prostitution, drugs, guns and corruption, a world of overstretched police forces and underpaid detectives, men and women who strive nonetheless for a kind of justice, a world in which everything, even friendship, has a price. Featuring characters like Frank Elder who tried to turn his back on police work and failed, Jack Kiley, ex-cop and now a London based PI, and the renowned jazz loving and much loved Detective Inspector Charlie Resnick. John Harvey's finely crafted vignettes perfectly encapsulate life in the badlands of contemporary Britain. The Best British Mysteries 2006 Maxim Jakubowski, 2005 Contributions include new stories by some of Britain's favourite crime writers: Jake Arnott, John Harvey, Mark Billingham, John Mortimer, Peter Robinson, John Connolly and many more. Best Eaten Cold and Other Stories Murder Squad, 2011-09-30 Including The Message by Margaret Murphy and Laptop by Cath Staincliffe, both winners of the CWA short story Daggar Award. 2012 Best Eaten Cold and Other Stories showcases a group of highly regarded award winning crime writers who all share a special passion for crime which is reflected in this superb new volume. The Best Murders Are British Jim Daems, 2020-08-26 A staple of television since the early years of the BBC British crime drama first crossed the Atlantic on public broadcasting stations and specialty cable channels and later through streaming services Often engaging with domestic anxieties about the government's power or lack thereof and with larger issues of social justice like gender equality racism and homophobia it has constantly evolved to reflect social and cultural changes while adapting U S and Nordic noir influences in a way that retains its characteristically British elements This collection examines the continuing appeal of British crime drama from The Sweeney through Sherlock Marcella and Happy Valley Individual essays focus on male melodrama nostalgia definitions of community gender and LGBTQ representation and neoliberalism The persistence of the English murder as each chapter of this collection reveals points to the complexity of British crime drama's engagement with social political and cultural issues It is precisely the mix of British stereotypes coupled with a willingness to engage with broader global social and political issues that makes British crime drama such a successful cultural export

Between the Dark and the Daylight Ed Gorman, Martin Greenberg, 2011-06-01 Crime fiction's biggest names have been rounded up for a truly impressive collection of 2008's best short stories Featuring authors like Michael Connelly Charlaine Harris and 2009 Edgar Award winner T Jefferson Parker this volume should be on the shelf of every mystery fan
