The Letters Of Ezra Pound:

The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1971 Originally published in 1950 under title The Letters of Ezra Pound 1907-1941 Letters, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1971 Pound/Lewis Ezra Pound, 1985 The friendship of Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis began in London in 1909 survived two European wars and the rise and fall of the totalitarian governments both men misguidedly supported and lasted through Pound's years of confinement at St Elizabeths to Lewis's death in 1957 In Pound/Lewis their correspondence of five decades is gathered for the first time it proves a revealing reflection of their intense always professional mutual regard Pound/the Little Review Ezra Pound, 1988 Gathers Pound's letters to the publisher of the Little Review and provides background information on this period in Pound's life The Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1950 Pound/Williams Ezra Pound, 1996 Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams two towering figures in American poetry began their lifelong and often contentious friendship as students at the University of Pennsylvania Their correspondence ran from 1907 the year Pound took up his virtually permanent residence in Europe until Williams' death in 1963 The letters contribute an unparalleled documentary record of modern culture a wealth of information about the lives and works of the two poets themselves the literary and political movements in which they became involved and the impact of public events upon the arts the activities of other writers and artists and the world of small presses and little magazines that nourished the growth of modernism Pound/Williams contains 169 letters selected from the poets surviving correspondence each letter reproduced in full and accompanied by explanatory notes Historical introductions place each of the live chronological groupings of letters into context and a biographical glossary identifies persons prominently mentioned The Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 D.D. Paige, 1950 The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, Mark Van Doren, 1982 Ezra Pound's Letters to William Watt Ezra Pound, 2001 The letters that Ezra Pound wrote to William Watt from 1956-58 are published for the first time offering an unusual and perhaps unique degree of insight into an aspect of the poet that is otherwise little known his interest in and acquaintanceship with modern architecture and city planning His expression of this interest involved advising Watt on the founding of the journal Diapason later Agora which was to be devoted to literature inspired by city and urban life and to the discussion of cities themselves These letters also add to what is already known about Pound's mentoring activities and capacities where les jeunes were concerned Like any such collection they offer a taste of his epistolary style and of the personality that underlay it kind devoted to the art of poetry prejudiced choleric merry and facsimile Since the present collection appears to be the first set of letters printed in its entirety it's the first to give full evidence that Pound's ellipses and his idiosyncratic spelling punctuation and typing in general held true throughout his correspondence some readers may find their interest quickened for this reason pg 1 The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, D.
