new light is shed on the practice of such well known women artists as May Morris Clarice Cliff Natacha Rambova Eileen Gray and Florine Stettheimer whose decorative practices are linked with a number of fascinating but lesser known figures such as Phoebe Traquair Mary Watts Gluck and Laura Nagy Women in Dada Naomi Sawelson-Gorse,2001 his book is the first to make the case that women s changing role in European and American society was critical to Dada "Exhibiting Outside the Academy, Salon and Biennial, 1775-1999 " Andrew Graciano,2017-07-05 In recent years there has been increasing scholarly interest in the history of museums academies and major exhibitions There has been however little to no sustained interest in the histories of alternative exhibitions single artwork solo artist artist mounted entrepreneurial privately funded ephemeral etc with the notable exception of those publications that deal with situations involving major artists or those who would become so for example J L David s exhibition of Intervention of the Sabine Women 1799 and The First Impressionist Exhibition of 1874 despite the fact that these sorts of exhibitions and critical scholarship about them have become commonplace and no less important in the contemporary art world The present volume uses and contextualizes eleven case studies to advance some overarching themes and commonalities among alternative exhibitions in the long modern period from the late eighteenth to the late twentieth centuries and beyond These include the issue of control in the interrelation and elision of the roles of artist and curator and the relationship of such alternative exhibitions to the dominant modes structures of display and cultural ideology Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze,2001 The Concise Dictionary of Women Artists provides an alternative history of Western art from the Middle Ages to the present day In 200 entries it examines the lives working conditions and most of all the work of a remarkable group of artists
