The Life Of Charles A Dana:

The Life of Charles A. Dana James Harrison Wilson,1907 The Life of Charles A. Dana (Classic Reprint) James Harrison Wilson,2018-01-05 Excerpt from The Life of Charles A Dana Having met Charles A Dana first in the spring of 1863 during the Vicksburg campaign it was my good fortune to serve with him in the field during three of the most memorable campaigns of the Civil War and for a short period under him as a bureau officer of the War Department Our duties threw us much together and of all the men I ever met he was the most delightful companion Overflowing with the knowledge of art science and literature and widely acquainted as he was with the leading men and movements of the times his conversation was a constant delight and a constant instruction Blessed with a vigorous constitution and an insatiable desire for information he never once by day or night or in the presence of danger however great declined to accompany me on an expedition or an adventure Naturally this companionship begot both a confidence and an intimacy that I am glad to say lasted to the end of his career and are my warrant for becoming his biographer About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works [The Life of Charles A.
