Leinster : Beautiful Ireland Series Stephen Lucius Gwynn, Leinster Beautiful Ireland Series Leinster is the richest of Irish provinces the heart of Ireland and for beauty it can challenge any of its sisters save in one respect only it lacks the beauty of wildness What it has to show of most beautiful lies within twenty miles of the capital There is no city north of the Alps which has so lovely surroundings as Dublin or so varied in their loveliness Sea and mountain plain and river all come into that range of exquisite choice But everywhere in it the beautiful frame of nature has been modified and beautified by man Since it is not possible in the small space available to describe exhaustively the features of this great province which stretches from the sea to the Shannon and from the Mourne Mountains to Waterford Haven Pg 6 a selection must be made and indicated at once First then the county of Dublin itself infringing a little on Kildare Secondly the Wicklow Mountains and their glens Thirdly that rich valley of the Boyne which was the heart of the ancient kingdom of Meath But before details are dealt with some general idea of the topography must be given Suppose you are on deck when the mail boat from Holyhead has been two hours out or a little more I write here for strangers you will see Dublin Bay open before you To your right making the northernmost horn of the curve is the rocky almost mountainous peninsula of Howth and ten miles north of it you see its shape repeated in the Island of Lambay Except for that to the north and to the west coast and land are all one wide level far as your eye can reach unless by some chance the air be so rarefied that you discern fifty miles northward the purple range of Carlingford Hills still in Leinster and beyond them delicate and aerial blue the long profile of the Mourne Mountains where Ulster begins But to the south of the city where it lies in the bight of the bay spilling itself northward along the shore to Clontarf of famous memory and southward to Kingstown and beyond mountains rise a dense huddle of rounded shouldering heights stretching away far as you can see Near Dublin they almost touch the Pg 7 shore one rocky spur comes down to Dalkey Island which was the deep water landing place before Kingstown harbour was built it rises into the peaked fantastic summit of Killiney Hill Beyond it the coast curves in a little giving a bay and valley in which lies Bray our Irish equivalent for Brighton The Bray river marks the limits of County Dublin and beyond Bray again is the high serrated ridge of Bray Head fronting the water in a cliff Landward from it rises peak by peak that exquisite chain of heights which from Little Sugarloaf to Great Sugarloaf runs back to connect here once more the main body of mountains with the sea The Truth about Ireland Alexander Corkey,1910 The regional travel guide for Connacht (Ireland) ,2025-09-24 A Journey Around the Emerald Isle: Discover the Beauty and History of Ireland Pasquale De Marco,2025-03-22 Embark on a captivating journey through the Emerald Isle with our comprehensive guide to Ireland Discover the country s rich history vibrant culture and stunning natural beauty through immersive storytelling and stunning imagery From the bustling streets

Legends, Charms and Superstitions of Ireland Lady Wilde, 2012-06-04 Nowhere in the nineteenth century did interest in folklore and mythology have a more thorough revival than in Ireland There in 1887 Lady Francesca Speranza Wilde Oscar Wilde's mother and a well known author in her own right compiled this collection of charming authentic folk tales Collected from among the peasantry and retaining their original simplicity the myths and legends reveal delightfully the Irish people's relationship with a spiritual and invisible world populated by fairies elves and evil beings Included in Lady Wilde's collection among others are eerie tales of The Horned Women The Holy Well and the Murderer and The Bride's Death Song as well as beguiling accounts of superstitions concerning the dead celebrations and rites animal legends and ancient charms The first book to link Irish folklore with nationalism Legends illustrates the mythic underpinnings of the Irish character and signals the country's cultural reemergence It remains said the Evening Mail an important contribution to the literature of Ireland and the world's stock of folklore

Annual Report of the Local Government Board for Ireland for the Year ..., 1905 A Tour Through Ireland; Wherein the Present State of that Kingdom is Considered Philip Luckombe, 1780 The Bardic Stories of Ireland Patrick Kennedy, 1871 Atlas and Cyclopedia of Ireland Patrick Weston Joyce, 1900 America, 1922 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017 Walking the Poems of Ireland Marilyn J. Middleton, 1999-12-03 This book is a detailed daily narrative of the author's exploration of over 45 sites of antiquities in Ireland as well as beautiful gardens and estates and Ireland's major cities These often remote sites still pepper the country today with astounding and beautiful ancient abbeys castles High Crosses Round Towers and medieval towns This book is a search for these sites and what they can tell about the magic of Ireland I spent many days traveling the small country roads to often inaccessible sites of antiquities in isolated fields behind farmers barnyards and near the coasts I also explored the Celtic sites of kings and queens and their lost legacies forgotten in the mists of legendary castles and abbeys I saw remnants in the current day Travelers a group of people who chose to live on the fringes of society and seek to live independently They also chose to live in scattered caravans in some of the most astoundingly beautiful places I have ever seen I was enthralled by the undiscovered adventures of rambling on small country roads with sheep and cattle sharing the road with my small Opel Vectra car and driving on the left and sitting in the right side of the car The little shops and country people I discovered along the way were charming The Irish countryside unindustrialized and uncommercialized is a mystique of changing colors of green fields mingled with little cottages and huge country manors Sometimes lost among this beauty I stopped to gaze upon time honored Celtic High Crosses or swans upon a lake or ducks on a river or border collies waiting at the threshold of a hundred farm cottages or to ponder how such a beautiful place could remained unspoiled in the mist I journeyed into the City of Dublin with its River Liffey and the stone bridges that looked like medieval sites in the mist Dublin has a haunting blend of majestic stone buildings a remote age castle green flowered parks and old antique shops that created a city lost in time Its hustle and bustle world famous theater and unique shopping opportunities made walking its streets worthy of many days ramblings This journal also covers a weekend exploring the majestic great castle ruins of Northern Wales and visiting three castles that are World Heritage Sites My travels were so overwhelming I will let each day speak for itself to the readers of this book
