The Law Of War A Documentary History:

The Law of War, a Documentary History Leon Friedman, 1972 Comprehensive collection of materials including texts of treaties and agreements war crimes trials et cetera from the Paris Convention of 1856 to contemporary court cases stemming from the Vietnam conflict The law of war : a documentary history. 1 Leon Friedman, 1972 A Socio-Legal History of the Laws of War Christopher W. Mullins, 2024-09-27 Tying the story of the development of the laws of war to key changes occurring within society A Socio Legal History of the Laws of War The Birth of International Humanitarian Law examines the emergence of international law and legal orders whereby more precisely articulated formalized and codified laws of war were adopted The Law of War Leon Friedman, 1972 Reflections on the Law of War Frits Kalshoven, 2007-05-31 The papers collected in this volume span a 35 year period of active involvement in the reaffirmation and development of international humanitarian law A process under that name started in 1971 and ended in 1977 with the adoption of two Protocols Additional to the Geneva Conventions of 1949 one for international and one for internal armed conflicts Subsequent developments brought a narrowing of this gap between international and internal armed conflicts as well as growing recognition of the interplay between the law of armed conflict and human rights the rediscovery of individual criminal liability for violations of international humanitarian law the introduction of further prohibitions or restrictions on the use of specified weapons and so on In contrast with these positive developments the period was negatively characterised by increasing disrespect not only for some or other minor rule such as what to do with cash taken from a prisoner of war at the time of his capture but for the very principles underlying the entire body of the law of armed conflict respect for the other as a human being and hence humane treatment of prisoners of war and other detainees protection of civilians Throughout the period the author s activities ranged from participation in lawmaking and law interpreting exercises through attempts at explaining the law of armed conflict in its historical context and making propaganda for its faithful implementation to critical or even bewildered observance of actual events The papers brought together here reflect these diverse angles The Law of War. A Documentary History. Ed. by L. Friedman. with a Forew. by T. Taylor L. Friedman, T. Taylor, 1972 The Air Force Law Review , 1976 The Laws of Yesterday's Wars Samuel C. Duckett White, 2021-12-20 This book offers a culture by culture account of various unique restrictions placed on warfare over time in a bid to demonstrate the underlying humanity often accompanying the horrors of war It offers the first systematic exploration of Indigenous Australian laws of war relaying decades of experience in communities Containing essays by a range of laws of war academics and practitioners this volume is a starting point in a new debate on the question how international is international humanitarian law See also its companion volume The Laws of Yesterday s Wars 2 From Ancient India to East Africa The Development and Principles of International Humanitarian Law Wolff Heintschel von Heinegg, 2017-07-05 The essays selected for the first part of this volume offer an insight into the development as distinguished from the history of international humanitarian law The focus of the majority of the works reprinted here is on an analysis of the adequacy of the law as it stood at the time of the respective publication and in the light of existing contemporary armed conflicts and military operations Thus the reader is afforded an in depth look at the early roots of international humanitarian law the continuing relevance of that body of law despite advances in weapons technology and the efforts to progressively develop it International humanitarian law s development cannot be considered in isolation from its principles The essays selected for the second part of the volume deal with the two fundamental principles underlying all of international humanitarian law humanity and military necessity The articles on the principles of humanity include reflections on the famous Martens Clause and the analyses of military necessity take no account of Kriegsraison Moreover they offer proof of the customary character of the principle of distinction in land air and naval warfare
