Cultures and Literatures in Dialogue Elena Bollinger, 2022-12-30 This book addresses the narrative construction of Russian cultural memory in the work of Julian Barnes It investigates how Barnes's texts tend to display a memory process as a transcultural mode of the creation of English and Russian national identities Examining a need to revisit Russian canonical works the detailed discursive analysis of the selected English texts exposes an intertextual remembering by duplication thus contributing to the prevention of forgetting through the recuperation of still misreclected cultural meanings By creatively incorporating Russian intertextual elements into his work as a novelist the author seems to insist on sweeping across and beyond national boundaries revealing how frail the invention of tradition is when leading to the illusion of a solid collective memory and its political legitimization The book considers not only a constructive dialogue between Barnes s fiction and Russian classical literature but also this writer s interpretative mostly imaginative integration of Russian literature and culture into his work as a novelist Exploring the double meaning of a literary metaphor as a mnemonic image of memory and a product of imagination it offers a comprehensive analysis of Barnes s texts which play with intertextuality as an efficient tool of displacement of official memory providing a deeper understanding of historical and cultural processes related to the constantly moving architecture of transcultural memory
