William Suddards Franklin

The Light In The Room:

The Light Room Kate Zambreno, 2023-07-04 Kate Zambreno has invented a new form. It is a kind of absolute present, real life captured in closeup. Annie Ernaux, winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature, is one of our most formally ambitious writers. Esquire offers a moving account of caretaking in a time of uncertainty and loss. In The Light Room, Zambreno offers her most profound and affecting work yet: a candid chronicle of life as a mother of two young daughters in a moment of profound uncertainty about public health, climate change, and the future we can expect for our children. Moving through the seasons, returning often to parks and green spaces, Zambreno captures the isolation and exhaustion of being home with a baby and a small child, but also small and transcendent moments of beauty and joy. Inspired by writers and artists ranging from Natalia Ginzburg to Joseph Cornell, Yoko Tsushima to Bernadette Mayer, Etel Adnan to David Wojnarowicz, The Light Room represents an impassioned appreciation of community and the commons and an ecstatic engagement with the living world. How will our memories and our children's be affected by this time of profound disconnection? What does it mean to bring new life and new work into this moment of precarity and crisis? In The Light Room, Kate Zambreno offers a vision of how to live in ways that move away from disenchantment and toward light and possibility.

Progress Iver P. Cooper, 2024-05-21 Nautical travel and shipboard living have evolved to be both safer and more comfortable for passengers and crewmembers. While some of these improvements have come about through sheer trial and error, others are the result of a careful analysis of problems followed by finding and implementing scientific solutions. This book, with a unique problem solution format, examines the challenges of life at sea and how they have been ameliorated. It covers topics such as ventilation, healthy food and drink, sleeping quarters, sanitation facilities, internal and external lighting, seaworthiness, and survival of maritime disasters: man overboard, shipwreck, fire, and contagious disease. The text traces the history of the various attempts to address the difficulties of life on the water from a scientific, engineering, and legal perspective.

Journal of Electricity, Power, and Gas, 1913 Milwaukee Ghosts and Legends Anna Lardinois, 2019-09-30 A tour guide and founder of Gothic Milwaukee shares the spine-tingling tales of the Beer City's famous and not so famous specters and legends. Beneath Milwaukee's calm facade, its ghastly past awaits. The overbearing spirit of Frederick Pabst keeps persistent watch over the mansion that shares his name. The remains of the Newhall House Fire, the city's deadliest disaster, may lie beneath a new building, but those who lost their lives that night refuse to rest in peace. Even the suburbs hold their share of ghoulish secrets, including the furtive dwarves of Haunchyville, the fabled Bray Road Beast, and the stubborn spirits lurking in Deacon West's house. A breeze, a spine-tingling breeze to read. It's extremely well-crafted, organized into deliciously digestible segments, and laden with descriptive yet straight-forward language. Lardinois stocks the stories with so many peculiar historical tidbits that the text is simultaneously scary fascinating and educational Did you know the ashes of the founder of The Skylight Theater are still beneath the stage OnMilwaukee.com The American Journal of Sociology Albion W.
