The Linda Gray Story:

The Linda Gray Story Mark Bego, 1988 Advancing Suicide Research Kairi Kõlves, Merike Sisask, Peeter Värnik, Airi Värnik, Diego De Leo, 2021-11-30 In this book leading researchers provide an overview of current best practices in the conduct of suicide research They describe quantitative qualitative and mixed methods approaches in suicide prevention research from a public health perspective In addition other aspects that are crucial to effective suicide research are examined including definitional issues historical background and ethical aspects The clearly written chapters include both theoretical and practical information along with specific examples from different areas of suicide research and prevention This volume is ideal for researchers students and academics interested in suicide research as well as policy makers clinicians and other practitioners Find Your Story, Write Your Memoir Lynn C. Miller, Lisa Lenard-Cook, 2013-05-31 Every person has a story to tell but few beginners know how to uncover their story's narrative potential And despite a growing interest among students and creative writers few guides to the genre of memoirs and creative nonfiction highlight compelling storytelling strategies Addressing this gap the authors provide a guide to memoir writing that shows how an aspiring writer can use storytelling tools and tactics borrowed from fiction to weave personal experiences into the shape of a story

Certainty and Ambiguity in Global Mystery Fiction John J. Han, C. Clark Triplett, Matthew Bardowell, 2024-02-08 Mystery fiction as a genre renders moral judgments not only about detectives and criminals but also concerning the cultural structures within which these mysteries unfold In contrast to other volumes which examine morality in crime fiction through the lenses of personal guilt and personal justice Certainty and Ambiguity in Global Mystery Fiction analyzes the effect of moral imagination on the moral structures implicit in the genre In recent years public awareness has attended to the relationship between social structures and justice and this collection centers on how personal ethics and social ethics are bound together amidst the shifting moral landscapes of mystery fiction Contributors discuss the interplay between personal guilt and social guilt considering morality and justice on an individual level and at a societal level using frameworks of certainty and ambiguity They show how individual characters in works by Agatha Christie Gabriel García Márquez Natsuo Kirino F. H. Batacan and Stephen King among others may view their moral standing with certainty but clash with the established mores of their culture Featuring essays on Japanese Filipino Indian and Colombian mystery fiction as well as American and British fiction this volume analyzes social guilt and justice across cultures showing how individuals grapple with the certainty and at times the moral ambiguity of their respective cultures Joni Mitchell Mark Bego, 2005-05-26 In February of 1996 Joni Mitchell was honored by the Grammy Awards in two separate categories which represent the two sides of her creativity As an accomplished painter her self portrait on the cover of her Turbulent Indigo album won her the trophy as Best Album Cover Artist and the music contained on the LP won the Best Pop Performance Female Only months later it was her personal life that was in the headlines as news that the daughter she had given up for adoption as a teenager had
