The Sino-Soviet Conflict, 1956-1961 Donald S. Zagoria, 1964 Sino-Soviet Conflict United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on the Far East and the Pacific, 1965 Reviews Sino Soviet ideological and border disputes and their possible impact on U S policy and military objectives in Vietnam Sino-Soviet Conflict, Report ... by the Subcommittee on the Far East and the Pacific ... Together with Hearings Held March 10-31, 1965 United States. Congress. House. Foreign Affairs, 1965 Sino-Soviet Dialogue on the Problem of War S. Yin, 2012-12-06 The author has spent upwards of ten years in working on this book His objective is to clarify the military aspect of the Moscow Peking dialogue which has not yet received its deserved treatment The apogee of that dialogue seems to have been passed toward the end of the rule of Khrushchev Yet the Vietnam war spawns fresh contention Our cover age will span the development from 1956 to the present The beginning of the dispute with regard to the origins of war in general is taken up in the first two chapters The next three chapters discuss the several types of war with the frame of reference set in what now appears to be a quondam era But the principle differences between the disputants are just as outstanding today as they were then The penultimate chapter is somewhat wide in scope in order to deal with the larger and more intensely bitter polemics evolving after Khrushchev left office There have been many new and startling views held by both sides since then views splitting them poles apart Ominously at issue now is the question of Sino Soviet peaceful coexistence Our work obviously cannot wait until that question is answered to be finished The final chapter concludes our study To write of subjects as dynamic as this one is a challenge because they are current affairs Due to the swift change of events no sooner is our typescript put to press than it needs a revision The Second Indochina War Ang Cheng Guan,2025-11-03 Drawing upon Vietnamese Chinese former Soviet and American sources Ang Cheng Guan provides an updated and concise account of the Vietnam War 1954 1975 from the Vietnamese communists perspective In the last few decades discourse on the Second Indochina War has shifted towards the South and its allies To mark the 50th anniversary of the fall of Saigon Ang revisits the experiences of the North Focusing on scholarship published within the last 30 years the book reexamines the 1954 Geneva Conference the end of the First Vietnam War through the Second Vietnam War to the 1975 Fall of Saigon bringing readers up to date on the current state of the field This book is a valuable resource for scholars and students of history war studies peace and conflict studies as well as for those interested in the historical and contemporary implications of the Vietnam War

The Vietnam War from the Other Side Cheng Guan Ang,2013-07-04 Existing studies of the Vietnam War have been written mostly from an American perspective using western sources and viewing the conflict through western eyes This book based on extensive original research including Vietnamese Chinese and former Soviet sources presents a history of the war from the perspective of the Vietnamese communists It charts relations with Moscow and Beijing showing how the involvement of the two major communist powers changed over time and how the Vietnamese despite their huge dependence on the Chinese and the Soviets were most definitely in charge of their own decision making Overall it provides an important corrective to the many one sided studies of the war and presents a very interesting new perspective Problems of Communism ,1962
