journals where they lay dispersed is a question to be decided by the reader to whom I submit the waifs and strays in the hope that they may help him to while away an idle half hour snatched from the duties or pleasures of ordinary life Most of the pieces were composed in the classic groves of Cambridge and the rest in the hardly less classic courts of the Temple haunted by the shades of Johnson of Goldsmith of Cowper and a crowd of other English worthies whose memories the world will not willingly let die It will be more than enough for me if these trifles should be deemed not wholly unworthy of the scenes in which they were written and to which they owe any measure of inspiration they may possess About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
