Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann, 2000 Perhaps the most vital emotionally complex and lasting attachments between women occur between sisters Whether as best friends or antagonists sisters remain entangled in a common tapestry of mutual experience and remembrance family and history according to author Eva Rueschmann Although many of the women centered films in the last three decades depict the relationship between sisters as a pivotal aspect of a character's psychological development the now substantial body of feminist film criticism has not taken up this theme in any sustained way In Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann explores the sister bond in a wide range of modernist feature films that depart from the conventional cinematic rendering of women's lives Drawing on the psychoanalytic concept of intersubjectivity this book emphasizes the role of a woman's relationship and inner world in her continual quest for self knowledge Offering an original and absorbing perspective on women's filmic images Sisters on Screen reveals how post 1960s cinema has articulated the ways in which biological sisters negotiate mutuality and difference co author family histories and profoundly shape each other's political and personal identities The films in focus question standards of femininity as they probe into memory fantasy and desire bringing women's realities into view in the process Structuring her discussion in terms of life cycle stages adolescence and adulthood Rueschmann offers an in depth discussion of such films as An Angel at My Table Double Happiness Eve's Bayou Gas Food Lodging Heavenly Creatures Little Women Marianne and Julianne Paura e amore Peppermint Soda The Silence Sweetie and Welcome to the Dollhouse Rueschmann draws upon the works of filmmakers from the 1970s to the 1990s Some of the directors included in her study are Allison Anders Gillian Armstrong Ingmar Bergman Jane Campion Peter Jackson Mina Shum Diane Kurys Kasi Lemmons Todd Solondz and Margarethe von Trotta Sisters on Screen will appeal to anyone interested in women's studies film studies psychology psychoanalytic readings of cinema women directors and international modern film Author note Eva Rueschmann is Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies at Hampshire College

Mortimer,2018-10-24 The captivity narrative the earliest genre of American popular literature continues to be of cultural significance in late 20th century Hollywood Many popular films of the last four decades incorporate the most common elements of the captivity narrative tradition including a politically contested frontier setting and a plot involving innocent family oriented white Americans held captive by hostile culturally alien natives At the same time these films offer something new to the narrative tradition they focus on the captive who resists rescue and the challenge this resistance poses to American cultural self confidence By focusing on the lost captive these films beginning with The Searchers 1956 deal with questions about American identity raised by a white American s cultural and potentially political transformation Films as diverse as Little Big Man Taxi Driver and The Deer Hunter adapted the captivity narrative s conventions to criticize aspects of contemporary American society and reject outworn models of male heroism at the same time however they retained the genre s traditional assumption of white superiority and its fear of female sexuality

On the Margins of Realism Ting Luo,2025-03-31 Realism has been endowed with a certain orthodox status as the aesthetic counterpart of China s modernization and studies of Chinese film history have largely accepted a master narrative of realism as the guiding aesthetic of mainland Chinese cinema This book argues however that alternative aesthetics to realism have always existed in Chinese cinema throughout its history from the early silent era to the new century The alternative aesthetics are closely linked to the indigenous Chinese ontology of cinema namely shadowplay yingxi The author presents an alternative account through a close examination of four distinct visual narrative and stylistic devices or themes that recur in different periods of Chinese film history the dream representation the doubling of characters the device of self reflexivity and the allegorical construction of space By considering specific films and scenes as problematic sites where history politics and aesthetics collide this book also seeks to elucidate the relationship between cinema and the multifaceted experiences of Chinese modernity with respect to subjectivity ideology identity and nationality This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Chinese cinemas realism and modernism Green
